8-211. Permit revocation or suspension. All permits issued by the beer board under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to suspension or revocation by the beer board for the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter.

(1) Suspension or revocation proceedings may be initiated by a complaint, which may be filed by a citizen, local law enforcement agency, or the town manager. The beer board is vested with full and complete power to investigate charges against any permit holder and to cite any permit holder to appear and show cause why his permit should not be suspended or revoked. Complaints filed against any permit holder for the purpose of suspending or revoking the permit shall be made in writing and filed with the beer board.

(2) When the beer board shall have reason to believe that any permit holder shall have violated the provisions of the state beer act or any of the provisions of this chapter, the beer board is authorized to notify the permittee of said violations and to cite said permittee, by written notice, to appear and show cause why the permit should not be suspended or revoked for such violations. Said notice to appear and show cause shall state the alleged violations charged and shall be served upon the permittee by registered mail. The notice shall be served upon the permittee at least seven (7) days before the date of the hearing. The chairperson of said beer board is authorized to compel the attendance of the hearing. Adequate public notice under the circumstances shall be given of the hearing. The chairperson of said beer board is authorized to compel the attendance of witnesses by subpoena issued by the town recorder. At the hearing, the beer board shall publicly hear the evidence both in support of the charges and on behalf of the permittee. After such hearing, if the charges are sustained by evidence, the beer board may, in its discretion, suspend or revoke said permit.

(3) The action of the beer board in all such hearings shall be final, subject to review by the court as provided in Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-108. When a permit is revoked, no new permit shall be issued hereunder for the sale of beer at the same location, until the expiration of one (1) year from the date said revocation becomes final. However, nothing contained herein shall be construed to deny the beer board the discretion to grant a new permit at the same location within one (1) year if the new applicant has no connection to the previous permit holder as provided in Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-108(k).

(4) Pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-608, the beer board shall not revoke or suspend the permit of a "responsible vendor" qualified under the requirements of Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-606, for a clerk's illegal sale of beer to a minor if the clerk is properly certified and has attended annual meetings since the clerk's original certification, unless the vendor's status as a certified responsible vendor has been revoked by the alcoholic beverage commission. If the responsible vendor's certification has been revoked, the vendor shall be punished by the beer board as if the vendor were not certified as a responsible vendor. "Clerk" means any person working in a capacity to sell beer directly to consumers for off-premises consumption. Under Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-608, the alcoholic beverage commission shall revoke a vendor's status as a responsible vendor upon notification by the beer board that the board has made a final determination that the vendor has sold beer to a minor for the second time in a consecutive twelve (12) month period. The revocation shall be for three (3) years.

(5) Permanent revocation of beer permits may only be applied when the permit holder has at least two (2) violations within a twelve (12) month period, as is required by Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-108.

(6) Any suspension or revocation of any permit issued by the board shall begin within thirty (30) days of the approval of the minutes of the meeting at which the suspension or revocation is ordered by the board, subject to § 8-212. The board has discretion to set the date upon which the suspension or revocation is to begin within this thirty (30) day time period (including immediately), but if the board fails to exercise this discretion the suspension or revocation will begin on the thirtieth day following the approval of the minutes of the meeting at which the board ordered the suspension or revocation of any permit. (Ord. #21-05A, April 2021)

8-212. Civil penalty in lieu of revocation or suspension.

(2) Penalty, revocation or suspension. The beer board may, at the time it imposes a revocation or suspension, offer a permit holder that is not a responsible vendor the alternative of paying a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) for each offense of making, or permitting to be made, any sales to minors, or a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for any other offense. The beer board may impose on a responsible vendor a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each offense of making, or permitting to be made, any sales to minors or for any other offense.

If a civil penalty is offered as an alternative to revocation or suspension, the holder shall have seven (7) days within which to pay the civil penalty before the revocation or suspension shall be imposed. If the civil penalty is paid within that time, the revocation or suspension shall be deemed withdrawn.

Payment of the civil penalty in lieu of revocation or suspension by a permit holder shall be an admission by the holder of the violation so charged and shall be paid to the exclusion of any other penalty that the town may impose. (Ord. #21-05A, April 2021)

8-213. Additional privilege tax. (1) In addition to the one (1) time application fee, beginning January 1, 1997, each beer permit holder shall pay a privilege tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year to the Town of Nolensville for business locations within municipal boundaries. The town recorder is required to mail a written notice of the annual tax due to each permit holder at least thirty (30) days prior to January 1 of each year. This notice must be mailed to the address specified in the beer permit application. If the permit holder does not pay the tax by January 1 of each year, then the town recorder must notify the permit holder by certified mail that the tax payment is past due. If a permit holder does not pay the tax within ten (10) days after receiving notice of the delinquency by certified mail, then the beer board may suspend or revoke the permit or impose a civil penalty.

(2) At the time a new permit is issued to any business subject to this tax, the permit holder shall be required to pay the privilege tax on a prorated bases for each month, or portion thereof, remaining until the next tax payment due date. (Ord. #21-05A, April 2021)

8-214. Loss of clerk's certification for sale to minor. If the beer board determines that a clerk of an off-premises beer permit holder certified under Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-606, sold beer to a minor, the beer board shall report the name of the clerk to the alcoholic beverage commission within fifteen (15) days of determination of the sale. The certification of the clerk shall be invalid and the clerk may not reapply for a new certificate for a period of one (1) year from the date of the beer board's determination. (Ord. #21-05A, April 2021)

8-215. Annual sales reporting. (1) The permittee shall, within thirty (30) days following the end of the calendar year, file a report on a form provided by the Town of Nolensville which shall be sworn to by the permittee, setting forth gross sales of the permittee for the quarter, sales of food and non-alcoholic beverages, and sale of beer.
