7-208. Variances. The chief of the fire department may recommend to the governing body variances from the provisions of the fire prevention code upon application in writing by any property owner or lessee, or the duly authorized agent of either, when there are practical difficulties in the way of carrying out the strict letter of the code, provided that the spirit of the code shall be observed, public safety secured, and substantial justice done. The particulars of such variances when granted or allowed shall be contained in a resolution of the governing body. (1989 code, §§ 7-208 and 7-209)

7-209. Violations. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter or code hereby adopted or fail to comply therewith, or who shall violate or fail to comply with any order made thereunder, or who shall build in violation of any detailed statement of specifications or plans submitted and approved thereunder, or any certificate or permit issued thereunder, and from which no appeal has been taken or who shall fail to comply with such an order as affirmed or modified by the governing body of the municipality or by a court of competent jurisdiction, within the time fixed herein, shall severally for each and every such violation and noncompliance respectively, be guilty of a misdemeanor. The application of a penalty under the general penalty clause for the municipal code shall not be held to prevent the enforced removal of prohibited conditions. (1989 Code, § 7-209)

CHAPTER 3

VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT¹

SECTION

- 7-301. Establishment, equipment, and membership.
- 7-302. Objectives.
- 7-303. Organization, rules, and regulations.
- 7-304. Records and reports.
- 7-305. Tenure of members.
- 7-306. Chief responsible for training.
- 7-307. Equipment to be used only within corporate limits.
- 7-308. Chief to be assistant to state officer.

7-301. Establishment, equipment and membership. There is hereby established a volunteer fire department to be supported and equipped from appropriations by the governing body of the municipality. The volunteer fire department shall be composed of a chief appointed by the municipal governing body and such number of subordinate officers and firemen, in no event less than fourteen (14), as the chief shall appoint. (1989 Code, § 7-301)

7-302. Objectives. The volunteer fire department shall have as its objectives to prevent uncontrolled fires from starting; to prevent the loss of life and property in case a fire does start; to confine fire to the place of origin; and, to extinguish uncontrolled fires. (1989 Code, § 7-302)

7-303. Organization, rules and regulations. The chief of the volunteer fire department shall set up the organization of the department, make definite assignments to individuals, and shall formulate and enforce such rules and regulations as shall be necessary for the orderly and efficient operation of the volunteer fire department. (1989 Code, § 7-303)

7-304. Records and reports. The chief of the volunteer fire department shall keep adequate records of all fires, inspections, apparatus, equipment, personnel, and work of the department. He shall submit a written report on such matters to the mayor once each month, and at the end of the year a detailed annual report shall be made. (1989 Code, § 7-304)

7-305. Tenure of members. The chief shall hold office so long as his conduct and efficiency are satisfactory to the mayor and municipal governing body. However, so that adequate discipline may be maintained, the chief shall have the authority to suspend or discharge any other member of the volunteer fire department when he deems such action to be necessary for the good of the department. The chief may be suspended by the mayor but may be dismissed only by the municipal governing body. (1989 Code, § 7-305)

7-306. Chief responsible for training. The chief of the volunteer fire department shall be fully responsible for the training of the volunteer firemen, and the absolute minimum training shall consist of having the personnel take the fire apparatus out for practice operations not less than once a month. (1989 Code, § 7-306)

7-307. Equipment to be used only within corporate limits. No equipment of the volunteer fire department shall be used for fighting any fire outside the corporate limits.

However, in limited cases the mayor and fire chief, with board approval, are authorized to provide the fire protection to large businesses that employ at least five (5) employees on a contractual basis, providing they have an adequate water supply.

Furthermore, the fire chief is authorized, should an emergency occur, to use his judgment, for the department to render aid to neighboring fire departments when it can be done without incurring undue risk to the citizens and properties inside the city limits. (1989 Code, § 7-307, as amended by Ord. #2004-11-1, Dec. 2004)

7-308. Chief to be assistant to state officer. Pursuant to requirements of Tennessee Code Annotated, § 68-102-108, the chief of the volunteer fire department is designated as an assistant to the state commissioner of insurance and banking and is subject to all the duties and obligations imposed by Tennessee Code Annotated, chapter 102, title 68 and shall be subject to the directions of the fire prevention commissioner in the execution of the provisions thereof. (1989 Code, § 7-308)
