AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE HUMANE EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY AND CITY OF RED BANK

This Agreement is made and entered into on this _____ day of _____________, 2006, between City of Red Bank (City), a political subdivision of the State of Tennessee, and the Humane Educational Society (HES).

Whereas, it has been determined that the humane education and animal control services provide a benefit to all citizens of the City; and

Whereas, HES is the only agency in the community that offers control of animals, rabies control, education concerning animals to the public, and pet therapy to area nursing homes.

Therefore, the City and HES do hereby enter into this Agreement for the following animal control services to be provided to the City for the fiscal period beginning July 1, 2006 through June 30, 2007:

1. Education the citizens of Red Bank be responsible animal owners.
2. Encourage the use of pet identification devices for their animals.
3. Provide field return of lost animals to their owners.
4. Respond to patrol requests.
5. Identify and / or apprehend trespassing dogs and cats.
6. Fulfill requests for humane live capture traps to capture nuisance animals.
7. Investigate animal cruelty and animal nuisance complaints.
8. Provide enforcement of the Rabies Control program.
9. Resolve vicious animal complaints.
10. Respond to barking dog complaints and / or inhumane treatment of animals.
11. Respond to injured and / or animals in distress calls.
12. Assist the Sheriff's department in calls for assistance.
13. Police loose livestock on the highway.
14. Provide administration of a low cost sterilization and pet adoption program.
15. Solicit of charitable donations to support the operation of the Humane Education division.
16. Provide and administer the necessary personnel, equipment and facilities required to effectively discharge the outlined duties including the oversight for sheltering stray, unwanted and apprehended animals.
17. Patrol at least twice a month for a two-hour period in addition to regular services outlined above.
18. After hours emergency services from 5pm-8am the HES will respond to and pickup:
   a. Severely sick and injured animals that do not have an owner
   b. Animals that have bitten
   c. Animals from an individual that have been arrested

These services will be provided 7 days a week at a rate of $3.556 per capita. Based on last known census of the City the cost to provide these services will be $44,158.41 to be made in monthly installments of $3,679.87 for the twelve month period beginning July 1, 2006.
In consideration of these premises, it is mutually agreed between the Parties hereto as follows:

1. The City shall have reasonable access to accounts, files and records maintained by HES for services rendered in connection with this Agreement to the City.
2. This Agreement shall automatically renew for successive periods of one (1) year, unless ninety (90) days prior cancellation notice is given by either party to the other of said party’s desire not to extend this Agreement.
3. Either party may cancel this Agreement, without cause, by giving ninety (90) days written notice to the other party.
4. Upon cancellation or expiration of this Agreement, the liabilities of the parties shall be limited to the payment of fees and/or credits incurred or accrued through and including the last effective day of this Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by, construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of Tennessee.
6. The performance of the City of any of its obligations under this Agreement shall be subject to and contingent upon the appropriation of funds otherwise lawfully expendable for the purposes of this Agreement for the current and future periods.
7. HES shall maintain during the term of this Agreement the following minimum coverage’s and limits which shall be primary regarding any claims that may arise out of HES operations against HES and/or the City:
   A. Commercial General Liability Insurance - $1,000,000 limit per occurrence for property damage and bodily injury and shall include the following coverage:
