

Accessibility [1]

Accessibility Statement

The University of Tennessee (UT) strives to deploy information, materials, and technology that have been designed, developed, or procured to be accessible to individuals with disabilities, including those who use assistive technologies.; This website was designed to be accessible to individuals with disabilities in accordance with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act.

Information for Users with Visual Disabilities

Images on our website include alternative text for browsers. Our website presents documents in many different formats, which are all generally accessible to users using screen-reading software.

Accessing Documents in Different File Formats

Content on this website may be in different file formats that require plug-ins, or separate browser components, to properly view. All required plug-ins are available free of charge by the vendor. Adobe Acrobat PDF (Portable Document Format) files ensure that you will be able to obtain documents in their original format regardless of the type of electronic device or browser you use. For best results, make sure you install the latest version of Adobe Reader.

If you experience any problems accessing information from mtas.tennessee.edu, please email staff at mtas@tennessee.edu [2] and include the information that you are seeking, the URL for the information, and your contact information so we may assist you with the request.

Links:

[1] <http://www.mtas.tennessee.edu/accessibility>

[2] <mailto:mtas@tennessee.edu>

Source URL (retrieved on 05/23/2019 - 11:46am): <http://www.mtas.tennessee.edu/accessibility>