Comptroller's Office Releases a Report on Statutory Exceptions to the Tennessee Public Records Act [1]

The Comptroller's office, through the Office of Open Records Counsel, released a report [2] this week that includes a comprehensive list of statutory exceptions to the Tennessee Public Records Act. Additionally, a searchable database [3] that includes all of the statutory exceptions identified in the report is available.

The database [3] is an invaluable resource that we encourage you to use. However, as questions arise regarding the applicability of an exception, please contact your MTAS management consultant for assistance.
