ISSUANCE OF BONDS

Section 39. Be it further enacted, That the Board of Mayor and Aldermen are hereby authorized to contract indebtedness on behalf of the City and upon the credit thereof, by issuing bonds of the City and disposing of them for the purpose of obtaining money for all public improvements that are legal and lawful under the General law, and for the purpose of constructing buildings that may be used in whole or in part for factories and industries that will increase employment in the City of Waverly; that at no time shall the bonds issued under this Authority for said purposes exceeding thirty per cent of the taxable values of real estate and personal property of said City, as shown by the assessment at that time; provided, that before any bonds are issued under this Authority the Mayor and Board of Aldermen shall draw up a proposition in writing that shall fully disclose the amount of bonds to be issued, the length of time they are to run, the rate of interest they are to draw, and the purpose or purposes for which they are to be issued, and shall cause said proposition to be posted at some public place in the City, or published in some newspaper published in the City of Waverly, at least thirty days before the day of election, which election shall be called and held by the Humphreys County Election Commission, upon request from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City, under the general election laws of the State, but in the event the Humphreys County Election Commission should neglect or refuse to hold such election, the Board of Mayor and Aldermen may cause an election to be held under rules and regulations prescribed by Resolution of the Board; and at such election the said proposition shall be submitted to a vote in said City; provided that bonds issued principally for refunding outstanding indebtedness, and for other purposes for which the General Law of the State requires no election, no elections shall be necessary or a prerequisite to issuance of such bonds. All qualified persons qualified at the time to vote for Mayor and Aldermen shall be entitled to vote in said election, and no bonds shall be issued under said proposition unless a majority of the votes cast in said election shall be in favor of the proposition; provided further that the defeat of any proposition shall not preclude its resubmission; and provided, further, that no bonds issued under this authority shall bear a greater rate of interest than six per cent per annum, and shall not be sold for less than par. When any bonds are issued hereunder for any legal purpose, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen shall have the power to pass and enforce any and all ordinances necessary to effectuate and carry out the purposes of which said bonds are issued, and may create any and all necessary boards and commissioners, and pass ordinances regulating their actions and duties. Whenever any bonds are issued hereunder the Board of Mayor and Aldermen shall annually levy a tax upon all taxable property and polls within the corporate limits of said City of a sufficient amount and for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and liquidating said bonds as they mature; and provided that all bonds so issued shall be secured by the full faith and credit of the said City of Waverly, and shall be made payable in current money of the United States, and shall not be taxable by the United States, the State or any County or Municipality thereof. That the Board of Mayor and Aldermen shall have the power to issue interest bearing warrants or notes and shall provide sufficient tax levy for the payment of said warrants and interest, which interest shall not exceed six per cent. [As amended by Priv. Acts 1959, ch. 301, § 3; Priv. Acts 1961, ch. 183; Priv. Acts 1971, ch. 44, § 25; and as purported to be amended by Priv. Acts 1977, ch. 89, §§ 3, and 4)¹

¹Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, section 3 does not amend section 39 of the charter; rather it purports to amend Private Acts 1971, chapter 44, section 25 which did amend section 39 of the charter. However, Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, section 3 is so confusing it was not possible for this compiler to determine the intent of the authors of that Act. The confusion is further compounded by Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, section 4, which does amend section 39 of the charter. The language of both acts is set out as follows:

Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, section 3:

Chapter 475 of the Private Acts of 1947 as amended by chapter 301 of the Private Acts of 1959, chapter 183 of the Private Acts of 1961, chapter 44 of the Private Acts of 1971, and all other acts amendatory thereof is amended, in section 25 of chapter 44 of the Private Acts of 1971, by deleting the amendatory words in their entirety and inserting instead the following:

The city may issue interest-bearing warrants or notes in such

WHEN ANNUAL TAX LEVY TO BE MADE

Section 40. Be it further enacted, That the tax levy for the year 1947 be made by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen at a regular meeting in July 1947, and that the annual tax levy thereafter shall be made in July of each year, or as amount as may be determined by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, section 4:

Chapter 475 of the Private Acts of 1947 and all other acts amendatory thereto is amended in section 39 by deleting the last words in the sentence, which read "which interest shall not exceed 6 percent," and inserting instead the following:

The city may issue interest-bearing warrants or notes with such interest rate as may be determined by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

As Private Act 1977, chapter 89, section 4 indicated, section 39 of the basic charter was amended by at least three prior private acts. However the only effect of Private Acts 1959, chapter 301, section 3 and Private Acts 1961, chapter 183, section 2 was to respectively increase the amount of interest hearing warrants the Board of Mayor and Aldermen had the authority to issue from the $25,000 in the basic charter to $75,000 and $125,000. Then Private Acts 1977, chapter 44, section 25 deleted the language imposing the $125,000 reduction. There have been no other amendments to section 39 except the two generated by Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, sections 3 and 4 which create the problem of interpretation of section 39.

The problem is that trying to satisfy the language deletion and replacement requirements of Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, section 3 creates a portion of section 39 of the charter that makes no grammatical sense. Presumably the author of Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, section 3, did not intend the deletion of the language of section 39 of the charter in its entirety or else he would not have in section 4 of that Act amended the last sentence of section 39. However, because this compiler is not certain as to the affect of Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, sections 3 and 4, at least in a grammatical sense, the changes in section 39 of the charter provided for therein have not been incorporated in section 39. Private Acts 1977, chapter 89, sections 3 and 4 are set out above as an aid to the reader to make his own interpretation of the grammatical affect of this Act on section 39.

soon thereafter as practical. Said taxes, when levied, shall have the force and effect given by the State laws relative to State taxes in the State of Tennessee.

DIVISION OF CITY INTO WARDS

Section 41. Be it further enacted, That the said City of Waverly may be divided into as many as three Wards by Ordinance of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, but the election shall be general over the whole City, and the party or parties receiving a majority of all votes of the City shall be deemed elected to the office to be filled, but not more than two Aldermen and one School Board Director shall be elected from any one Ward.

LAWS REPEALED

Section 42. Be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act be and the same are hereby repealed, and Chapter No. 782 of the Private Acts of 1925 is hereby expressly repealed.

DATE OF EFFECT
