

Municipal Technical Advisory Service

In cooperation with the Tennessee Municipal League

Welcome to MTAS' new MPA Post Graduate Intern, Jennifer Ward.

Jennifer is MTAS's second MPA Post Graduate Intern and is currently working with the cities of Brentwood, Columbia, Murfreesboro and White House and also with the Tennessee Municipal League.

Jennifer is a recent honors graduate of Indiana University's School of Public and Environmental Affairs. Her master's concentrations were public finance, economic development, and policy analysis. She received her undergraduate degree in International Affairs from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio. Jennifer has previously interned for the international non-profit, Bread for the World, Institute, and most recently, in the Research and Consulting Center of the Government Finance Officer's Association (GFOA). Some of her work with GFOA, particularly on performance measurement, can be seen on the organization's website and will be published in The State and Local Government Performance Measurement Sourcebook expected later this year.
