BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. The City of Medon, Tennessee, shall continue as a body politic and corporate by the name and style of Medon, Tennessee, and this Act shall constitute its complete charter. The City of Medon shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all the courts of law and equity, and in all actions whatsoever, and may have and use a common seal and change it at pleasure.

SECTION 2. As used in this charter the following words and terms shall have the following meanings:

1. "Alderman" means a person elected to the office of Alderman as provided in this charter.

2. "At large" means the entire city, as distinguished by representation by wards or other districts.

3. "Board of Mayor and Aldermen" and "Board" means the legislative body of the city, which shall be composed of the Mayor and four Aldermen elected as provided in this charter.

4. "Elector" means qualified voter residing within the city and has so resided within the corporate limits for six (6) or more months or a qualified voter who owns not less than an undivided one-half (1/2) interest in taxable real estate located within the City.

5. "Nonpartisan" means without any designation of candidates as members or candidates of any state or national political party or organization.

6. The masculine includes the feminine, and the singular includes the plural and vice versa, except when the contrary intention is manifest.

SECTION 3. The boundaries of the city shall be those fixed by Chapter 360, Private Acts of 1915, all Acts amendatory thereof, and annexations made pursuant to general law. The precise boundaries shall be kept on record by the City Recorder.

SECTION 4. The city shall have power to:

1. Assess property for taxation, and to levy and provide for the collection of taxes on all property subject to taxation.

2. Levy and collect privilege taxes on businesses, privileges, occupations, trades, and professions, and to levy and collect any other kind of tax not prohibited to cities by the Constitution or general law.

3. Levy and collect registration fees on motor vehicles. Such registration fees may be graduated according to the tonnage capacities, weight, or horsepower of motor vehicles and to regulate all matters concerning traffic within the community not specifically addressed by the Tennessee Code Annotated, including, but not limited to, speed limits, parking, stopping and yielding, turning movements and street marking and designation.

4. Appropriate and borrow money, and to authorize the expenditure of money for any municipal purpose.

5. Acquire land, including improvements thereon, easements, or limited property rights thereto, by purchase, gift or condemnation, for public use, for present or future use by the city, to reserve industrial sites, to provide open spaces, to encourage proper development of the community, or for the general welfare of the community. Such acquisitions may be within or outside the city.

6. Grant franchises or make contracts for public utilities and public services, not to exceed a period of twenty-five (25) years. Such franchises and contracts may provide for rates, fares, charges, regulations, and standards and conditions of service, subject to regulation by the Tennessee Public Service Commission or other state or federal agency having jurisdiction in such matters.

7. Provide for the acquisition, construction, building, operation, and maintenance of: public ways, parks, public grounds, cemeteries, markets and market houses, public buildings, libraries, sewers, drains, sewage treatment plants, airports, hospitals, water works, docks, gas works, marinas, forests, tree and shrub nurseries, heliports, terminals, parking garages and lots, industrial sites and buildings; charitable, educational, recreational, sporting, cultural, curative, corrective, detentive, penal, and medical institutions, agencies, and facilities; and any other public improvements; inside or outside the city; and to regulate the use thereof, and for such purposes property may be either acquired or taken under applicable laws.

8. Require property owners to repair and maintain in a safe condition the sidewalks adjoining their lots or lands, including removal of snow, debris or other material.

9. Make regulations to secure the general health of the inhabitants and to prevent, abate, and remove nuisances, including but not limited to old or dilapidated buildings which are so out of repair as to be unsafe, unsanitary or unsightly. The city shall have the power to abate and removed nuisances at the expense of the owner and owners, and the expense, including fines, penalties, and interest, shall be secured by lien upon the property for which the expenditure is made.

10. Prescribe standards of health and sanitation and to provide for the enforcement of such standards.

11. Provide for the collection and disposal of garbage, rubbish and refuse. Charges may be imposed to cover the costs of such service which, if unpaid, shall be collectible in the same manner as taxes or other debts.

12. Define, regulate, and prohibit any act, practice, conduct, or use of property, that would be detrimental, or likely to be detrimental, to the health, morals, safety, security, peace, or general welfare of inhabitants of the city.

13. Establish minimum standards for and to regulate building construction and repair, electrical wiring and equipment, gas installations and equipment, fixed mechanical equipment, plumbing, and housing, for the health, sanitation, cleanliness, safety and comfort of the inhabitants of the city, and to provide for the enforcement of such standards.

14. Regulate, license and prohibit the keeping or running at large of animals and fowls, and to provide for the impoundment of same in violation of any ordinance or lawful order, and to provide for their disposition by sale, gift, or humane killing when not redeemed as provided by ordinance.

15. Regulate and license vehicles operated for hire in the city, to limit the number of such vehicles, to license the operators thereof, to require public liability insurance on such vehicles, and to regulate and rent parking spaces in public ways for the use of such vehicles.

16. Provide that the violation of any ordinance, rule, regulation, or order shall be punishable by fine, penalty, or forfeiture up to the limits prescribed by the general laws of the State of Tennessee.

17. Plan for the orderly development of the community, including economic, physical, educational and cultural aspects, and to institute programs to effectuate such plans.

18. Establish codes containing specifications of minimum standards for building, electric, fire safety, gas and plumbing of all structures, commercial or residential, within the community.

19. Establish and regulate a municipal court in accordance with the general laws of the State of Tennessee.

20. Regulate the sale of beer within the municipality in accordance with the general laws of the State of Tennessee. These powers shall include but not be limited to the establishment and operation of a beer board, the issuance of permits and setting of standards for applicants of the permits, location of retailers and physical standards for such locations, the establishment of classes of permits according to whether beer is sold for on or off premises consumption, limitation on the number of permits to be issued and the authority to suspend, revoke or fine permit holders for the violation of such regulating ordinances.

21. Regulate the operation of peddlers, solicitors and yard sales within the community. These powers shall include but not be limited to the authority to issue permits and require such for said activities, limit the hours and locations of such, including limiting the amount of time "going out of business" sales may be continued.

22. Prohibit offenses against the peace and dignity of the municipality including, but not limited to, disturbing the peace through loud and boisterous conduct, blowing of horns except as a warning or in case of emergencies, extraordinarily loud playing of radios or other apparatus for the replication of sound and limits on excessive noises near churches, schools or hospitals.

23. Prohibit interference with public operations or personnel including, but not limited to, the impersonation of government officials and employees and the turning in of false emergency alarms for either fire, police or medical aid.

24. Prohibit the discharge of air rifles or pistols, "BB" guns, slingshots and firearms within the municipality.

25. Prohibit the abandoning of any refrigerator, cave, well or cistern in an unsecured manner in any location accessible to children.

26. Regulate the posting or erection of any sign, leaflet or other notice.

27. Regulate the uses of land in accordance with the general laws of the state of Tennessee.

28. Regulate the location, size, individual lot size, water and electrical supply, sewage and garbage disposal, streets and parking areas, and require permits and permit fees of mobile home parks within the municipality.

29. Regulate the disposal of refuse within the city. These powers shall include but not be limited to the size and location of containers for such disposal, dates and times of refuse pick up, designation of authorized sites of disposal and prohibition against disposal at unauthorized sites and the setting of fees for said disposal.

30. Regulate the use of water within the municipality. Such powers shall include but not be limited to the requirement of an application for service, the establishment of temporary service charges and connection fees, extension of water and sewer services, use of meters, requirements for billing and payment of bills, inspections and access to premises for inspections, penalties for unauthorized use of service and schedules of rates for services.

31. Regulate the use of sewers and the discharge of wastewater within the community pursuant to the laws of the state of Tennessee and the United States. Such powers shall include but not be limited to the establishment of permits, fees and billing procedures, requirement of connection to public sewers if such service is offered, regulations and specifications for private domestic wastewater disposal if public sewer service is unavailable, industrial monitoring and inspection, rules on the content and amount of discharge and enforcement and abatement of cases of violations of such provisions.

32. Regulate the use of natural gas if such service is offered by the municipality. Such powers shall include but not be limited to the establishment of temporary service charges and connection fees, extension of services, use of meters, requirements for billing and payment of bills, inspections and access to premises for inspections, penalties for unauthorized use of service and schedules of rates for services.

33. Provide for penalties to be assessed for violation of any ordinance promulgated as a result of this act.

34. Establish and regulate a Police Department and Fire Department.

35. Exercise and have all other powers, functions, rights, privileges, and immunities granted by general laws or necessary or desirable to promote or protect the safety, health, peace, security, good order, comfort, convenience, morals, and general welfare of the city and its inhabitants, and all implied powers necessary to carry into execution all powers granted in this charter as fully and completely as if such powers were enumerated herein. No enumeration of particular powers in this charter shall be held to be exclusive of others or restrictive of general words and phrases granting powers, but shall be held to be in addition to such powers unless expressly prohibited to cities by the constitution or general laws of the state.

SECTION 5. The board of mayor and aldermen shall consist of a mayor, who shall serve a four (4) year term, and four (4) aldermen, who shall also serve four (4) year terms. The mayor and aldermen shall all be elected at large. The candidate for mayor receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected and the four (4) candidates receiving the highest number of votes for alderman shall be declared elected. In case of a tie vote for mayor or for an alderman position, the incumbent board of mayor and aldermen shall decide by vote which of the candidates shall serve, or they may choose and elect some other eligible person to fill such office.

On the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1994, a non-partisan election shall be held to elect a mayor and board of aldermen. Thereafter, a non-partisan election shall be held on the first Tuesday in November every four (4) years to elect a mayor and board of aldermen. Terms of office for the mayor and aldermen shall begin upon their swearing in at the next regularly scheduled meeting following their election.

Before a person takes any office in the city government, the person shall subscribe to the following oath or affirmation, administered by a judge of the State of Tennessee:

I solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution and will obey the laws of the United States and of the State of Tennessee, that I will, in all respects, observe the provisions of the Charter and ordinances of the City of Medon, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of _____.

Any qualified elector who has been a resident of the city for a least one (1) year may be qualified as a candidate for mayor or alderman.

SECTION 6. Giving or promising to any person or persons any office, employment, money, benefit, or anything of value, by or on behalf of any candidate, shall be punished as provided by general law and any person so convicted shall be ineligible to hold an office or position of employment in the city government for a period of five (5) years.

SECTION 7.

1. The Mayor and four (4) aldermen elected under this charter shall compose the board of mayor and aldermen, in which is vested all corporate, legislative and other powers of the city, except as otherwise provided in this charter.

2. The compensation of the mayor and aldermen shall be set by ordinance, but the salary of the mayor or any alderman shall not be changed during their term of office. The mayor, aldermen and city attorney may be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the conduct of their official duties.

3. The board of mayor and aldermen shall meet regularly at least once every month at the times and places prescribed by ordinance. The board shall meet in special session on written notice of the mayor or any three (3) aldermen and served on the other members of the board or as agreed upon by a duly adopted motion at a regular or special meeting. Only the business stated in the written call or stated at the meeting when the special meeting is called may be transacted at a special meeting.

4. A majority of the board of mayor and aldermen, excluding any vacancies, constitutes a quorum. The ayes and nays of all votes shall be recorded in the journal. The board may by ordinance adopt rules and bylaws to govern the conduct of its business, including procedures and penalties for compelling the attendance of absent members. The board may subpoena and examine witnesses and order the production of books and papers.

SECTION 8. The mayor shall preside at the meetings of the board. The mayor shall have a vote only in the event of a tie, then the mayor shall cast the vote breaking such tie. The mayor shall be recognized as the ceremonial head of the city. The mayor shall be the officer to accept process against the city, and shall perform other duties imposed by this charter and by ordinances not inconsistent with this charter.

SECTION 9. There shall be a vice-mayor who shall be selected at the first meeting after each election by the board from among their number and his compensation, if any, shall be fixed by said board. The term of office of the vice-mayor shall be for four (4) years. The vice-mayor shall perform the duties of the mayor during the mayor's temporary absence or inability to act. In case of a vacancy in the office of mayor, the vice-mayor shall complete the unexpired term. If the vice-mayor is completing a term in the office of mayor, the vice-mayors' position as an alderman shall become vacant and the board shall fill the vacancy as provided in Section 10. The board shall select another of their number to fill out the unexpired term of the vice-mayor.

SECTION 10. The board of mayor and aldermen shall declare that a vacancy exists if the mayor or an alderman resigns, dies, moves the official's residence from the city, is convicted of malfeasance or misfeasance in office, a felony, a violation of this charter or election laws of the state, or a crime involving moral turpitude, fails to attend any meetings of the board for a period of ninety (90) days with no extenuating circumstances, or has been continuously disabled for a period of six (6) months so as to prevent the discharge of the duties of office.

The board of mayor and aldermen shall, within a period of thirty (30) days from the date on which a vacancy was declared, appoint a qualified person to complete the remainder of the unexpired term.

SECTION 11. The aldermen shall act on all matters as a body, and no member shall seek individually to influence the official acts of any officer or employee of the city, or to direct or request the appointment of any person to, or a member's removal from, any office or position of employment, or to interfere in any way with the performance of duties by any officer or employee.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the board from conducting such inquiries into the operation of the city government and the conduct of the city's affairs as it may deem necessary.

SECTION 12. Any action of the board having a regulatory or penal effect, awarding franchises, or required to be done by ordinance under this charter or the general laws of the state, shall be done only by ordinance. Other actions may be accomplished by resolutions or motions. Ordinances and resolutions shall be in written form before being introduced. The enacting clause of ordinances shall be: "Be it ordained by the board of mayor and aldermen of the City of Medon:". Every ordinance must be approved on two (2) readings and there shall be no more than one (1) reading on any one (1) day. A majority of the board of mayor and aldermen shall vote in favor of an ordinance or it shall be deemed as failed. An ordinance may receive first reading upon its introduction. Ordinances shall take effect upon final reading, adoption and being signed by the mayor unless a different effective date is designated in the ordinance.

Ordinances shall be identified with a two (2) part numeration. The first part shall consist of the two (2) digits representing the last two (2) digits of the year the ordinance was introduced. The second part shall be the number of its order of introduction that year.

All duly enacted ordinances and this charter shall be compiled in a well-bound volume(s) to be known as the "Medon Municipal Code."

SECTION 13. The city government shall be organized into such departments and offices as shall be provided by ordinance. The board shall determine by ordinance the functions and duties of all departments and offices. The board may establish, abolish, merge, or consolidate offices, positions of employment and departments; may provide that the same person shall fill any number of offices and positions of employments; and may transfer or change the functions and duties of offices, positions of employment and departments.

SECTION 14. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the city. The mayor:

1. Shall have access to all of the books, records, offices and papers of every kind pertaining to the city's business.
2. Shall present in writing or verbally to the board recommendations on the needs of the city.
3. May make temporary appointments to the offices of recorder, attorney, or judge in cases of sickness, absence or other temporary disability. Temporary appointments shall be effective until such time as they are confirmed or rejected by the board.

4. Shall make appointments to boards and commissions as authorized by law.

5. Shall take all proper measures for the preservation of public order and preservation of the peace and he may call upon the Governor for aid.

6. Shall sign all checks and drafts drawn upon the treasury by the recorder.

7. Shall sign all contracts authorized by the board to which the city is a party.

SECTION 15. The board shall appoint a city recorder.

The recorder shall keep and preserve the city seal and all official records not required by law or ordinance to be filed elsewhere; to attend all meetings of the board and to maintain a journal showing the proceedings of all such meetings, the aldermen present and absent, each motion considered, the title of each resolution and ordinance considered and the vote on each question; and to prepare and certify copies of official records. The recorder shall maintain the Medon Municipal Code in a current and usable manner and shall furnish the mayor and each alderman with a copy of said code upon assuming office for use during the term in office.

The recorder shall act as tax collector and issue receipts for taxes collected and enter on the tax books the payment of taxes on the date on which they are collected.

The recorder shall serve as treasurer and as such shall receive and keep safely all funds of the city shall pay out same upon warrants signed by him and the mayor.

SECTION 16. The board may appoint a city attorney. The city attorney shall be responsible for advising the board and officers and employees concerning legal aspects of their duties and responsibilities; approving as to form and legality all contracts, deeds, bonds, ordinances, resolutions, motions, and other official documents; and performing such other duties as may be prescribed by the board.

SECTION 17. A city judge shall be appointed by the board. The judge shall not be less than twenty-five (25) years of age. A person designated by the board shall serve in the absence or incapacity of the judge.

The jurisdiction of the city judge shall extend to the trial of all offenses against the ordinances of the city, and costs in such trial shall be fixed by ordinance. The city judge shall have power to levy fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs, to issue all necessary process, to administer oaths, and to maintain order including the power which the court of general sessions have to fine for contempt. Penalties shall not exceed five hundred ($500) dollars in amount. The sole compensation for serving as city judge shall be a salary fixed by the board, and all fees for actions or cases in the court shall belong to the city and shall be paid into the city treasury.

The bail of persons arrested and awaiting trial and persons appealing a decision of the city judge shall be fixed by the city judge, upon such security as in the judge's discretion as deemed necessary or as may otherwise be provided by ordinance. Cash bail of persons arrested may be accepted at such times and by officers or employees other than the judge as provided by ordinance; such ordinance shall require that the person arrested be given a receipt for cash bail which shall explain the nature of the deposit. The receipt shall be in triplicate: the original to the depositor, duplicate and money to the recorder, and triplicate to the city judge within the twenty-four (24) hours after the arrest.

Fines and costs may be paid by installments to be fixed and security determined as provided by ordinance. Upon willful failure to pay fines and costs or to furnish security, the city judge may hold the offender in contempt. Receipts of the city court shall be deposited with the recorder and the city judge shall make monthly reports thereof to the board. The city judge shall keep a docket of all cases handled.

The city judge shall be exclusive judge of the law and the facts in every case and no officer or employee of the city shall attempt to influence the decision except through pertinent facts presented in open court.

SECTION 18. Only the offices and positions of employment provided for in the annual budget, as approved by the board, shall be filled unless an emergency that demands the immediate filling of a position arises. In determining salaries, due consideration shall be given to duties, responsibilities, technical knowledge and skill required to satisfactorily perform the work, and availability of persons having the qualifications desired.

SECTION 19. Only the offices and positions of employment provided for in the annual budget, as provided by the board, shall be filled. In determining salaries, due consideration shall be given duties, responsibilities, technical knowledge and skill required to satisfactorily perform the work and availability of persons having the qualifications desired.

SECTION 20. The board may adopt supplementary rules and regulations governing employment by the city, not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter.

SECTION 21. The recorder and such other officers and employees as may be designated by the board, shall give a fidelity bond or faithful performance bond, as determined by the board with some surety company authorized to do business in the state of Tennessee, in such amount as shall be prescribed by the board. All such bonds and sureties thereto shall be subject to approval by the board and the cost of such bonds shall be paid by the city.

SECTION 22. No full-time employee of the city shall continue in the employment of the city after becoming a candidate for nomination or election to any city office, but this provision shall not apply to the mayor, aldermen, members of boards or commissions, the city attorney or the city judge. No person shall directly or indirectly give, render or pay any money, service or other valuable consideration to any person for or on account of or in connection with employment by the city government. No person shall orally, by letter, or otherwise solicit or be in any manner concerned in soliciting any assessment, subscription or contribution from any employee of the city in connection with any city election. Any person who individually or with others willfully or corruptly violates any provision of this section upon conviction thereof shall immediately forfeit and vacate the office or position held and be ineligible to hold any office or position of employment in the city government for a period of five (5) years thereafter.

SECTION 23. No officer or employee shall accept any free or preferred service, benefits or concessions from any person, company or firm regulated by or doing business with the city.

SECTION 24. The fiscal year of the city government shall begin on the 1st day of July and shall end on the 30th day of June of the succeeding year.

SECTION 25. Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, the mayor shall submit to the board a proposed budget for the next fiscal year, showing separately for the general fund, each utility, and each other fund the following: (a) revenue and expenditures during the preceding year, (b) estimated revenue and expenditures for the current fiscal year, (c) estimated revenue and recommended expenditures for the next fiscal year, and (d) any other information and data, such as work programs and unit costs, in justification of recommended expenditures that may be considered necessary. A copy of the budget in full shall be filed with the recorder for public inspection and a copy shall be filed with the recorder for public inspection and a copy shall be furnished to each alderman.

SECTION 26. After receiving the proposed budget, the board shall fix a time and place for a public hearing thereon. A notice of the hearing shall be published one (1) time in a newspaper having general circulation in the city. The publication shall appear at least ten (10) days in advance of the date of the hearing.

SECTION 27. After the public hearing the board shall adopt the budget with such modifications as the board considers necessary or desirable. If emergency conditions prevent the adoption of a budget before the beginning of the new fiscal year, the appropriations of the last fiscal year shall become the appropriations for the new fiscal year. Amendments may be made to the original budget at any time during a current fiscal year after a ten (10) days notice published in the newspaper and a public hearing before the board.

SECTION 28. The board is responsible for controlling expenditures of the various agencies of the city government to accomplish maximum efficiency and economy. No expenditures shall be made in excess of appropriations.

SECTION 29. Any contract or agreement made in violation of the provisions of this charter or ordinances of the city is void and no expenditure may be made thereunder. Every officer and employee who knowingly makes or participates in any such contract or agreement, or authorizes or makes any expenditure thereunder, and their sureties on their official bonds, and every person who shall knowingly receive such a payment, shall be jointly and severally liable to the city for the full amount so paid or received. A violation of this section by any officer or employee is cause for removal.

SECTION 30. The mayor may sell city property which is obsolete, surplus or unusable; provided, however, any sale for more than five hundred dollars ($500) or any sale of real estate shall be subject to approval by the board.

SECTION 31. Each bid on a contract for any public works or improvement shall be accompanied by a cash or surety company bid bond in the amount of five percent (5%) of the amount of the bid. Before any contract is awarded, the contractor shall give a bond for the faithful performance of the contract, with a surety company authorized to transact business in Tennessee, in an amount equal to one hundred (100%) of the contract price.

SECTION 32. All property subject to taxation shall be subject to the property tax levied by the city pursuant to the general laws of the State of Tennessee.

SECTION 33. The city recorder shall add to the assessment rolls any taxable property that may have been omitted by the county assessor. Such property shall be appraised and assessed at the same ratio as other property of the same class located in the city.

SECTION 34. The board shall make a tax levy, expressed as a fixed rate per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation. The levy shall be made in a manner pursuant to the general laws of the State of Tennessee.

SECTION 35. The due dates of property taxes and method of payment of such taxes shall be fixed by ordinance. The city shall send tax bills to taxpayers, showing the assessed valuations, amount of taxes due, tax due dates, and information as to delinquency dates and tax, penalty, or interest thereon. Property taxes which become delinquent shall be subject to penalty and interest which shall be fixed by ordinance. On and after the date when such taxes become delinquent, the tax records of the city shall have the force and effect of a judgment of a court of record.

SECTION 36. The board may provide by ordinance for the collection of delinquent taxes by distress warrants issued by the mayor for the sale of goods and chattels to be executed by any police officer of the city under the laws governing execution of such process; or by the county trustee as provided by general law; or by the city attorney acting in accordance with general laws providing for the collection of delinquent city or county taxes; by garnishment; by suits in chancery; or by any two (2) or more of the foregoing methods, or by the use of any other available legal processes and remedies.

SECTION 37. The city may contract with the county for the collection of taxes. The contract may provide for reasonable fees to be paid to the county for this service.

SECTION 38. No officer or employee of the city shall have the authority to excuse taxes, penalties, interest, special assessments, or other charges due the city, but errors may be corrected when authorized by the board.

SECTION 39. All disbursements, except for any agency of the city administered by a board or commission, shall be made by checks signed by the city recorder and countersigned by the mayor. The board may designate other officers to sign such checks in the absence or disability of the mayor or city recorder.

SECTION 40. The board shall designate an official depository or depositories for deposit and safekeeping of funds of the city, with such collateral security as may be deemed necessary by the board.

SECTION 41. In addition to other powers granted in this charter, the board shall have power to contract and cooperate with any other municipality or other political subdivision of the state, or with an elective or appointive official thereof, or with any duly authorized agency of the federal or state government, for the exercise of any power or function which the city is authorized to undertake by this charter.

SECTION 42. Notwithstanding any provision of this charter, the board may elect to operate under or adopt any general law or public act available to municipalities of the state, in lieu of or in addition to provisions of this charter.

SECTION 43. The violation of any provision of this charter, for which a penalty is not specifically provided herein, is punishable as a civil violation and such violation may be punished as provided herein.

SECTION 44. All ordinances and bylaws of the City of Medon not inconsistent with this act shall remain in effect until modified or repealed in accordance with the provisions of this act.

SECTION 45. Chapter 360 of the Private Acts of 1915, as amended by Chapter 286 of the Private Acts of 1919 and all acts amendatory thereto, are repealed.

SECTION 46. If any article, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence or part of this charter shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect or impair any other parts of this charter unless it clearly appears that such other parts are necessarily dependent upon the part or parts held to be invalid or unconstitutional. It is the legislative intent in enacting this charter that each article, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, or part be enacted separately and independently of each other.

SECTION 47. This act shall have no effect unless it is approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the legislative body of the City of Medon. Its approval or nonapproval shall be proclaimed by the presiding officer of the City of Medon and certified to the Secretary of State.

SECTION 48. For the purpose of approving or rejecting the provisions of this act, it shall be effective upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it. For all other purposes, it shall become effective upon being approved as provided in Section 47.
