ARTICLE II. BOUNDARIES AND WARDS

Sec. 5. Boundaries.¹

That the boundaries of said City of Johnson City, hereby incorporated, shall be as follows:

As said boundaries of said City of Johnson City stood fixed on December 31, 1938, by precedent acts of the General Assembly, which acts are here referred to and by reference made a part of this section for the definition of boundaries, additions thereto and exclusions therefrom. See Acts 1887, Chapter 20; Acts 1909, Chapter 125; Private Acts 1923, Chapter 469; Private Acts 1927, Chapter 311; Private Acts 1929, Chapter 401; Private Acts 1933, ¹The city boundaries have been further amended by subsequent ordinances, on file in the office of the city recorder, approved by referendum of the voters.

An action by the city commission to annex territory by ordinance was reasonable and valid. Morton v. Johnson City, 333 S.W. 2d 924 (1960).

A city has the burden of proving that an annexation ordinance is reasonable, and the issue of reasonableness should be submitted to a jury. State ex rel. Moretz v. City of Johnson City, 581 S.W. 2d 628 (1979).

Ord. No. 2163 was valid and effective, though the City of Watauga attempted to annex some of the same territory. City of Watauga v. City of Johnson City, 589 S.W. 2d 901 (1979).

Chapter 671; Private Acts 1937, Third Extraordinary [Extraordinary] Session, Chapter 7 (pp. 408-409).

The return of the officer upon the citation shall be made substantially as the law requires in the case of writs in either civil or criminal cases; and the wilful failure to obey the citation by the person upon whom it is served, shall be a contempt of court, and shall subject the offenders to such punishment as the law now permits in cases of contempt. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 11]

Sec. 140. Powers relative to habeas corpus; appointment of counsel for infant.¹

That the juvenile judge shall have the power of a circuit judge with respect to the granting of writs of habeas corpus in the case of any child subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

The juvenile judge may, at any stage of the proceeding, appoint any practicing attorney in the city, guardian ad litem for said infant, and it shall be the duty of such attorney to appear for such infant and on its behalf, without compensation. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 12]

Sec. 141. Hearing generally.

That upon the return of the citation, or when a child may be otherwise brought before the court, and at the time fixed for hearing the matter, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the case. The judge may conduct examination of witnesses without the aid of counsel, take testimony, and inquire into the habits, conditions, surroundings and tendencies of the child, so as to enable the court to make such order as shall be best adapted to carry out the intent and purpose of this article. The care, custody, punishment and discipline of children shall approximate as nearly as possible that which should be given or inflicted by parents in a given case; and, in so far as practicable, such children shall not be treated as criminals, but as being misdirected, misguided, neglected, or as needing aid and encouragement, as the case may be. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 13]

Sec. 142. Disposition of child brought before court generally.

That the juvenile judge may, in proper cases, as in cases of crimes or misdemeanors, bind any child subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to the criminal court of Washington County, or may fine such child and collect the fine as a magistrate might do for the same offense, or he may commit the child to the workhouse of Washington County, as a magistrate may do under the provisions of the law relating to small offenses; and said court may commit children to the custody of a probation officer, confine them in a house of detention, commit them to a state, county or private industrial school, place them in a private family, apprentice or bind them out as now provided by law, leave them in their own homes subject to the orders and directions of the court, and require them to report to the court or to any probation officer at such time and place as said court may designate, or the court may do any and all acts for the benefit and welfare of said children. When one (1) jurisdiction has been obtained of a child by the court, it shall continue for the purposes of this act until such child has attained twenty-one (21) years of age. The court shall have power to modify or revoke any order made by him respecting such child, remit fines, in whole or in part, release, parole, recommit or bind to the criminal court, at his discretion. No adjudication shall operate as a disqualification of the child for any office under any state or municipal service; and the child shall not be denominated a criminal by reason of such adjudication, nor shall such adjudication be denominated a conviction. No testimony given in any matter by a child in any proceeding under this act shall be heard against such child in any other suit or proceeding of any kind whatsoever. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 14]

Sec. 143. Disposition of child when examination waived or when child charged with violation of city ordinance; appeal.

That whenever a child is charged with the violation of any law or statute he or she shall have the right to waive an examination by the court, in which even [event] the court shall commit the child to the county jail or take bond in such sum as is otherwise provided by law for such offense, for the appearance of the child before the criminal court of the county.

Where any child is charged with the infraction of a city ordinance, and in all other cases of dependency and delinquency as herein defined, an appeal may be taken from any final order of the court to the next circuit court at Johnson City, such appeal to be taken within two (2) days thereafter, Sundays excluded. Such appeal may be taken by the child or by the parents of the child, or by the guardian or person having custody of the child, upon giving an appeal bond in the penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00), with good and sufficient security as approved by the said juvenile court, for the successful prosecution of the appeal; or such appeal may be taken by the guardian ad litem of the child, without an appeal bond, upon the guardian ad litem taking oath that the persons interested in the child are unable to give appeal bond by reason of their poverty. Trials upon any appeal taken under the terms of this act shall be had at the first term after appeal. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 15]

Sec. 144. Effect upon powers of justice of the peace.

That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to prevent justices of the peace from issuing warrants for the arrest of any child charged with an offense against the state laws or municipal ordinance, nor to prevent any peace officer from making arrests in any case where they are now authorized to make arrests and execute process; but whenever a child shall be brought before a justice of the peace or is arrested by any peace officer such child shall be sent immediately into the custody of an officer of the juvenile court, and when so delivered to the court, the jurisdiction of such justice of the peace, city judge or peace officer shall cease, and said juvenile court shall deal with the child as herein authorized, and nothing herein contained shall be construed as forbidding the grand juries of said county to find presentments and indictments against any person charged with crime, as now authorized by law to do; but the criminal court of said county is hereby authorized to place under control of said juvenile court and its officers any child arraigned for trial or tried in said court or he may revoke any other order respecting the child that said criminal court is now authorized by law to make and enter in the premises. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 16]

Sec. 145. Place of proceedings; maintenance, etc., of detention homes.

That all hearings and proceedings conducted by the juvenile judge shall be held in some suitable place, room, or office provided by the board of commissioners of the city. Such hearings or proceedings may be held behind closed doors, if desired. No children subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile judge shall be confined in the jail of the county or city, if their confinement in said places can be reasonably avoided. The jurisdiction herein conferred on the juvenile court shall be so administered to dissociate children, as far as practicable, from criminals.

It shall be the duty of the county court and the board of commissioners of the City of Johnson City to provide a suitable place of detention of children, while awaiting trial and final disposition by the juvenile court; and it shall also be the duty of the board of commissioners to provide a suitable place where the court may be held.¹ [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 17]

Sec. 146. Funds for maintenance for detention homes; matron.

That the board of commissioners of the City of Johnson City shall include in its annual budget an amount sufficient to maintain the two (2) homes hereinbefore provided for, to be known as “detention homes,” and to provide a matron to be selected and appointed by the juvenile judge, and who shall supervise the conduct of the detention homes. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 18]

¹Archaic language deleted by the codifier.

Sec. 147. Authority of judge to arrange for detention of child with private association, etc.

That the judge may arrange with any incorporated association or voluntary society, or some suitable individual maintaining a suitable place of detention for children subject to the jurisdiction of said court, for the use thereof as a shelter or temporary detention home or for the care of the children, and he may enter an order which shall be effectual for that purpose. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 19]

Sec. 148. Inspection of institutions by judge.

That it shall be the duty of the judge, at least once a year, to visit each institution in which there shall be at the time a child under commitment pursuant to this act, and the managers and officers of said institution shall accord to the judge full opportunity to inspect the said institution in all its departments to the end that the judge may be advised as to the propriety of continuing the use of said institution as a custodian agency; and the judge may examine witnesses under oath or appoint a referee for the purpose of obtaining any information as to the efficiency and character of such institution. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 20]

Sec. 149. Witness fees, etc., not allowed.

That no witness fees or other allowances shall be allowed other than that now allowed by said county for taking said child to reform and vocational schools, except as specifically set forth herein. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 21]

Sec. 150. Territorial jurisdiction.

That the territorial jurisdiction of the judge of the juvenile court of the City of Johnson City shall extend and be co-extensive with the territorial jurisdiction of the judge of the city court of the City of Johnson City, as provided by this charter, relative to violation of the state laws and ordinances of the City of Johnson City. [Priv. Acts, 1939, ch. 189, art. XXV, § 22]

ARTICLE XXVI. CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION FOR PUBLIC SAFETY DEPARTMENT¹

Sec. 151. Composition of commission.

There is hereby created a commission to be composed of five (5) members, to be known as the civil service commission of the City of Johnson City. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(1), 8-27-86]

Sec. 152. Qualifications of members; compensation.

The board of commissioners of the City of Johnson City shall have the power to fix the qualifications and compensation of the members of the civil service commission and to pass such ordinances as may be required to carry out the purposes and provisions of this article. Additionally, the civil service commission shall have the authority to adopt rules and regulations governing its procedures; provided that such rules and regulations are subject to final approval by resolution adopted by a majority of the full membership of the board of commissioners and that they may not conflict with these charter provisions or other ordinances regulating the civil service. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(2), 8-27-86]

Sec. 153. Appointment of members.

The board of commissioners shall appoint a civil service commission consisting of five (5) members who shall be qualified electors and residents of the City of Johnson City and shall not be employees of the City of Johnson City. Two (2) members of the civil service commission shall be selected and recommended by the employees of the police bureau and appointed by the board of commissioners, one (1) member of the civil service commission shall be selected and recommended by employees of the fire bureau and appointed by the board of commissioners, and two (2) members shall be recommended and appointed by the board of commissioners. The members of the civil service commission shall serve staggered two-year terms.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that the board of commissioners is required to appoint any individual recommended by the employees of either bureau, and the board of commissioners expressly shall have the authority to require additional recommendations. In the event that either bureau fails to submit additional recommendations in the time prescribed by the board of commissioners, then the board of commissioners shall have the authority to fill any outstanding vacancies on the civil service commission. Any vacancy in the membership of the civil service commission may be temporarily filled by appointment by the board of commissioners for a period of up to ninety (90) days, and any permanent appointment shall be filled by the same selection process that resulted in the appointment of the member who vacated the commission. The members of the civil service commission shall select a chairman who shall serve for a term of one (1) year but shall not be prohibited from serving successive terms. Three (3) members shall constitute a quorum to conduct business including trial board hearings. In order to prevent the possibility of a tie vote in a trial board hearing to review a disciplinary appeal, the trial board shall consist of either five (5) or three (3) members. In the event that only one (1) member is unable to attend a trial board hearing, a panel of any three (3) members of the commission shall be selected by a random selection process. In the event the chairman is unable to attend, the other members of the commission may elect a substitute chairman for that hearing. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(3), 8-27-86]

Sec. 154. Oath of commissioners.

The said commissioners shall qualify and take an oath to uphold the Constitutions of the United States and of the State of Tennessee, and faithfully to discharge the duties of their respective offices, and, upon the organization thereof, shall undertake the duties of said office. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(4), 8-27-86]

Sec. 155. Removal of commissioners.

Any commissioner may be removed for cause during his term of office by a majority vote of the full membership of the board of commissioners, but only after such commissioner shall have been served with a statement in writing of the reasons alleged to justify his removal, and allowed an opportunity to be represented and publicly heard in his defense before the board of commissioners. Said action of the board of commissioners shall be final. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(5), 8-27-86]

Sec. 156. Powers and duties of commissioners.

The civil service commission shall have the power and it shall be its duty to conduct hearings to review disciplinary actions, limited to suspensions, dismissals, or demotions of any employees not exempted from the provisions of this article. In the course of any hearing conducted under the provisions of this article, the civil service commission shall have power to administer oaths, to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production by them of books and papers pertinent to any matter or inquiry, and to examine such witnesses under oath in relation to any matter properly involved in such proceeding. For such purposes, the commission may invoke the power of any court of record within Washington County, or judge thereof, to compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books and papers in compliance with such subpoena. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(6), 8-27-86]

Sec. 157. Termination, suspension, or demotion of employee.

The city may terminate, suspend, or demote officers of the police bureau and fire bureau for just cause, and the employee shall be given a written notice of the reasons for the action. Just cause shall exist when the employer had a reasonable basis for the action taken. Enumeration of the above-stated disciplinary actions, which are reviewable by the commission, shall not be construed as a limitation on powers of the city to impose other less stringent disciplinary measures which shall not be reviewable by the commission. Before an officer is terminated he should be allowed an opportunity to respond to the charges against him in the presence of the bureau chief or his designee. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(7), 8-27-86]

Sec. 158. Appeals to commission.

Any sworn officer of the fire department and police department, not in his initial probationary period, who has been suspended, terminated, or demoted, may appeal to the commission within ten (10) calendar days after notification in writing of such action. The civil service commission shall have authority to grant a hearing if the appeal was not timely, provided that the employee shows good cause for the failure to appeal within ten (10) days. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(8), 8-27-86]

Sec. 159. Hearings.

Upon an officer's appeal from his termination, demotion, or suspension, a hearing shall be held before the commission within a reasonable time thereafter, not to exceed sixty (60) days from filing of the appeal, except that the employee may consent to a delay and that the commission may grant a continuance to either side for good cause shown. Any employee who has been indicted by a federal or state grand jury or against whom a presentment or information has been filed shall be granted, upon his request and at his election, a postponement of hearing before the civil service commission until such indictment, presentment, or information has been finally disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction. A majority vote shall be required to reverse or sustain the disciplinary action of the city. At such hearing both the appealing employee and the official whose actions are being reviewed shall have the right to be heard and to present evidence and to be represented by themselves or by legal counsel of their choosing. The burden of proof required to sustain the action of the city shall be by a preponderance of the evidence. If, after a presentation of the proof, the commission finds that there exists a reasonable basis for the disciplinary action taken, the action of the city shall be sustained. The decision of the commission shall be appealable by either the city or the employee as provided by state law.

The city manager shall designate the director of personnel or other employee to act as secretary to the civil service commission, who shall keep the minutes of the commission, convene members for hearing boards, notify parties of hearings, and perform other duties as required by ordinance. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(9), 8-27-86]

Sec. 160. Hearing officer.

The civil service commission, upon recommendation by the city manager and approval by the board of commissioners, shall be authorized to employ an attorney licensed in the State of Tennessee to attend a trial board hearing and act as a hearing officer. It shall be the duty of the hearing officer to preside at the hearing, rule on questions of admissibility of evidence, swear witnesses, advise commission members as to the law of the case, and ensure that the proceedings are carried out in accordance with these provisions, other applicable law and ordinances. When a hearing officer is employed for a trial board hearing, he shall also act as chairman, and the chairman of the commission, if present, shall participate and vote as any other member of the commission. The hearing officer shall not take part in the determination of a question of fact or have a vote in deciding a case. A hearing officer, upon his own motion or timely motion of a commissioner or party, may decide any procedural question of law.

A hearing officer is not a requirement for a trial board hearing, and nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the appointment of a hearing officer. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(10), 8-27-86]

Sec. 161. Examinations for applicants for employment.

All applicants for employment or promotion in positions protected by this article shall be subjected to competitive job-related examinations under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the civil service commission. The examinations to be provided for shall be of a practical nature and relate to such matters as will fairly test the relative competency of the applicant to discharge the duties of the particular position. These examinations should be developed in conjunction with other tools of personnel assessment and complemented by sound programs of job design to aid significantly in the development and maintenance of an efficient work force and in the utilization and conservation of human resources. No question in any examination shall relate to political or religious opinions or affiliations. The examination shall be conducted and controlled by the director of personnel.

The civil service commission shall certify the list of applicants in rank order with the top scoring applicant first and the lowest scoring applicant last. The civil service commission shall furnish the certified list of all qualified applicants to the city manager, from which list the city manager, bureau chief, and personnel director, shall select applicants for existing vacancies by selecting a candidate for each vacancy from the top five (5) candidates. As a candidate is either selected, withdraws from consideration, or is disqualified because of failure to meet the minimum requirements for this position, the next highest candidate shall become eligible.

In holding examinations, the director of personnel and the civil service commission shall act without partisan distinction or control and all examinations shall be for the purpose of determining the qualifications and fitness of the person or persons so examined to discharge the duties of a public safety officer. The civil service commission shall approve the methods of testing in all categories and the procedures to be used and administered in the test. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(11), 8-27-86]

Sec. 162. Eligibility for taking examination.

No applicant shall be permitted to attend or participate in an examination until he shall have produced before the civil service commission satisfactory evidence that he is a person of good moral character and standing, and if he is related by affinity or consanguinity within the second degree to any member of the civil service commission, such member shall be incompetent to act or vote in his cause. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(12), 8-27-86]

Sec. 163. Eligibility for appointment.

A person successfully passing the civil service examination as provided in this article shall be eligible for appointment to the public safety department for a period of three (3) years from the date of the examination, provided that if a new test for public safety officers is administered within the three-year period, the applicant may be required to take such new test. In the event that an applicant is not employed in the public safety department before the expiration of one (1) year after the civil service examination, he may be required again to submit to a physical examination for the purpose of determining his fitness for the position. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(13), 8-27-86]

Sec. 164. Maintenance of files.

The personnel director shall file the original application for examination, the original examination papers, and the entire record of each and every person examined by the civil service commission, and shall establish and maintain a separate file for each and every person so examined. The date on which the employee's seniority starts shall be considered to be the original date of employment, except that if there is a break in service the date shall be the most recent employment date. If the break in service does not exceed one (1) year, the employee shall receive credit for his original employment. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(14), 8-27-86]

Sec. 165. Temporary appointments.

The city manager, who supervises the department of public safety, may make temporary appointments for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days, except in case of an emergency, and only then where there is no qualified applicant for a position in the public safety department who has successfully passed the civil service examination. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(15), 8-27-86]

Sec. 166. Appointment and promotion on probation.

No appointment, employment, or promotion of any sworn officer in the public safety department shall be deemed complete or permanent until after a period of one (1) year has elapsed after such appointment or promotion. Within the one-year probationary period a new employee may be discharged at any time and a promoted employee may be reduced to his former rank at any time upon the recommendation of the department head to the city manager. However, if no discharge or demotion shall be made within such one-year period, then such appointment, employment, or promotion shall be deemed to be permanent, and said employee shall hold his office or employment during good behavior, or until reduced, discharged, or suspended in accordance with provisions of this act.

The approval of the civil service commission is not necessary when the city manager, or officer acting under his authority, discharges an employee still on probation whose appointment has not become complete or permanent, nor is the approval of the civil service commission necessary when the city manager, or officer acting under his authority, reduces a promoted employee to his former rank during the probationary period. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(16), 8-27-86]

Sec. 167. Reports required.

From time to time, as often as shall be required by the board of commissioners, the civil service commission shall render reports of its accomplishments and actions. [Ord. No. 2586, § 1(17), 8-27-86]
