MTAS Public Works

MTAS public works consultants help Tennessee cities with stormwater issues, street and pavement management, solid waste and recycling, equipment specifications, and fleet management. They prepare bid packages, perform departmental reviews, assist with qualification-based selection of engineering consultants, and provide training on technical topics.

Our public works consultants split the state into three territories.

John Chlarson, Public Works Consultant (731) 425-4785