

Notice of Unavailability

Dear Reader:

The following document was created from the MTAS website (mtas.tennessee.edu). This website is maintained daily by MTAS staff and seeks to represent the most current information regarding issues relative to Tennessee municipal government.

We hope this information will be useful to you; reference to it will assist you with many of the questions that will arise in your tenure with municipal government. However, the Tennessee Code Annotated and other relevant laws or regulations should always be consulted before any action is taken based upon the contents of this document.

Please feel free to contact us if you have questions or comments regarding this information or any other MTAS website material.

Sincerely,

The University of Tennessee

Notice of Unavailability

Reference Number: MTAS-901

If a plan administrator receives notice of a qualifying event, or even a second qualifying event, and determines that the individual is not entitled to COBRA or a disability extension, the plan administrator also must provide a notice to the individual explaining the reason for the denial. This notice does not apply to events in which the employer is required to notify the plan administrator such as termination of employment, reduction in work hours, death or enrollment in Medicare. This must be sent out in the same time frame as the plan would have sent the election notice.

The Department of Labor provides examples of triggering events that would require that the new notice of unavailability be sent. Examples include when the employee or QB fails to notify the employer of one of the above events or does not notify the employer/plan administrator in a timely manner. The employer/plan administrator then would be required to send the notice describing the reason for denying continuation of coverage within 14 days.
