SECTION 2. The Town of Saltillo, in the county of Hardin, and the inhabitants thereof, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate by the style and name of "Town of Saltillo" and shall have perpetual succession by the corporate name; may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded; grant, receive, purchase and hold real, mixed and personal property; may sell, lease, or dispose of the same for benefit of said municipality; and may do all other acts authorized by municipal, state and federal law as the stated and implied powers of a municipality; and may have and use a corporate seal and change it at its pleasure.

SECTION 3. As used herein, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Alderman" means a person elected to the board as provided in this charter;

(2) "Board" means the legislative body of the town, which is composed of the mayor and five (5) aldermen elected as provided in this charter;

(3) "Town" means the Town of Saltillo, Tennessee; and

(4) "Nonpartisan" means without any designation of candidates as members or candidates of any state or national political party or organization.

SECTION 4. The boundaries of the Town shall be as provided in Chapter 699 of the Private Acts 1951, all Acts amendatory thereof, and in addition shall include annexations made pursuant to general law.

SECTION 5. The legislative power of the Town is vested in the Board. The members of the Board are elected for a term of four (4) years by the qualified voters of the Town and shall serve until successors are elected and qualified; provided, however, that the expiration of the regular term of office of the members of the Board elected in the August 2003 election is extended from the first Tuesday of August 2007 to the date following the November 2008 election when their successors are elected and qualified. Thereafter, the members of the Board shall be elected for four-year terms on the date of the general election held in November. The members' terms begin at the convening of the first regularly scheduled meeting of the Board next succeeding the date of their election.

SECTION 6. Beginning with the election in November 2008, all Town elections shall be held on the date of the general election held in November 2008 and on the date of the general election held in November every four (4) years thereafter. Elections shall be held under the direction of and in such manner as the Board prescribes, and under the general rules and regulations fixed by law for holding state, county and municipal elections. Any person who is qualified to hold office in Hardin County, Tennessee, and has been a resident of the Town for twelve (12) months next preceding the election, is qualified to hold the office of Mayor or Alderman. Any person who is qualified to vote in state and county elections and who resides within the corporate limits of the Town shall be entitled to vote in all municipal elections in the Town, provided that he or she shall be required to register under any applicable state election registration laws. The person receiving the highest number of votes for Mayor shall be declared elected and the five (5) persons receiving the highest number of votes for the office of Alderman shall be declared elected, and the county election commission shall issue to the persons so elected a certificate showing their election.

If there is a tie vote between two (2) or more persons having the highest number of votes for an office, the Board shall cast the deciding vote.

SECTION 7. Before entering upon the discharge of their duties, the members of the Board shall take an oath to faithfully, honestly and impartially perform the duties of their office without fear or affection and to the best of their skill and ability.

SECTION 8. A vacancy exists if the Mayor or an Alderman:

- (2) Is convicted of a malfeasance or misfeasance in office, a felony, a violation of the election laws of the state, or a crime involving moral turpitude;
- (3) Fails to attend any meetings of the Board for a period of ninety (90) days with no extenuating circumstances; or
- (4) Is prevented from discharging the duties of his or her office because he or she has been continuously disabled for a period of six (6) months.

The Board shall by resolution declare a vacancy to exist for any of these reasons, and such finding shall be final. The remaining members of the Board shall fill any such vacancy, for the balance of the unexpired term.

Special meetings shall be called by the Mayor when two (2) members of the Board submit a written request specifying the purpose of the meeting. The Mayor may also call special meetings at any time the Mayor thinks the welfare of the town demands it. Business not specified in the call to a special meeting shall not be transacted in such meeting.

SECTION 10. Four (4) members of the Board constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of the absentees in such manner and under such penalties as the Board may provide. The Recorder shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Board and shall enter in such journal each vote taken by the Board of yeas and nays. No action of the Board, except to adjourn, shall have any force or validity unless at least three (3) of the members have voted in favor thereof.

SECTION 11. The Board has the power to make all ordinances necessary and proper for carrying into execution the provisions of this Act and power herein granted, and all ordinances which it may deem necessary and requisite for the good order, health, good government, or general welfare of the Town, and also for the protection of any corporate property, privileges and franchises, and force the same by a proper fine, and other penalties not in conflict with general law.

SECTION 12. The Mayor shall preside at all meetings of the Board, call special meetings of the Board as hereinbefore provided, see that the corporate laws and ordinances are duly enforced, shall countersign checks and drafts drawn upon the treasury by the Treasurer and sign all contracts to which the Town is a party. In the absence, resignation, or sickness of an officer of the Town, the Mayor may appoint officers to fill such vacancies until the next meeting of the Board. The Mayor shall have power to suspend any officer when, in the judgment of the Mayor, the public welfare requires it, but shall submit to such officer at the time of the suspension a written specification of the charges against the officer. The officer may appeal the suspension to the Board. In all cases of the examination of charges against any officer the Mayor shall preside, administer oaths, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of the witnesses and the production of books and papers. The Mayor shall give such records and information in writing to the Board as the Mayor may deem expedient for the interest of the Town. The Mayor shall have the right to vote once on all questions. The Recorder or the Recorder's designee shall be present at all meetings of the Board and shall keep a full and accurate record of all business transacted by the Board to be preserved in permanent form. The Recorder or the Recorder's designee shall have custody of, and preserve in the Recorder's office, the Town seal, the public records, original rolls of ordinance, ordinance books, minutes of the Board, contracts, bonds, title deeds, certificates, and papers, all official indemnity or security bonds, and all other bonds, oaths and affirmations and all other records, papers and documents not required by this charter or by ordinance to be deposited elsewhere, and register them by numbers, dates and contents, and keep an accurate and modern index of such material. All such records shall be the property of the Town. The Recorder shall serve at the will of the Board.

In the absence or disability of the Town Judge, the Mayor may designate a qualified person to serve as Town Judge or may designate the general sessions court judge of Hardin County to be acting Town Judge until a new Town Judge can be appointed at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board, or as otherwise provided by ordinance.
