Priv. Acts 1903, ch. 350, is the current basic charter act for the City of Camden, Tennessee. The text of the basic charter act set out herein was last amended to reflect legislation passed in the 2011 session of the Tennessee General Assembly and is current with the laws from the 2023 Regular Session of the 113th Tennessee General Assembly. Sections of the charter which have been amended contain at the end of those sections the citation to the official private act or acts constituting the amendment or amendments. No other changes have been made in the charter except the addition of a table of contents to facilitate its use. A list of all the private acts including the basic charter appears at the end of the charter.

Acts of a temporary nature with no general or continuing application, such as bond authorization and validation acts have not been included in this compilation.

SECTION 3

SUCCESSORS TO CORPORATE PROPERTY

Be it further enacted, That all the real and personal property, and all legal claims, fines and forfeitures belonging to the said City of Camden, the charter of which has been repealed by this General Assembly, shall hereafter belong to the City of Camden in its corporate style, hereby created; that all legal debts, claims and demands now existing against the "Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Camden," the charter of which has been repealed by this General Assembly, shall hereafter belong to the "Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Camden," hereby created, and that all of said claims, debts and demands, now existing against said city, or the Mayor and Aldermen of said city, shall be assumed and paid by the "Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Camden," hereby created. That the City of Camden, in its corporate style, hereby created shall be vested with the title to all the real, mixed and personal property, taxes, claims, debts, fines and forfeitures belonging to the "Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Camden," the charter of which has been repealed by this General Assembly, and shall have full and ample power through its officers and agents to collect, demand, receive, have and to hold all of said property, real, mixed or personal belonging to said City of Camden, or "the Mayor and Aldermen of said City of Camden," the charter of which has been repealed by this General Assembly.

SECTION 4

OFFICERS

That the officers of the City of Camden, to be chosen by the people, shall be a Mayor and a Board of Aldermen, constituting a City Council, each of whom shall be citizens and voters in the city. The Board of Aldermen shall consist of five (5) members chosen by the qualified voters of the city. Any Alderman, or the Mayor, after their election, removing from the city, shall vacate their office. [As amended by Priv. Acts 1917, ch. 694, § 1(1); and replaced by Priv. Acts 2011, ch. 17, § 1]

COUNCIL TO ELECT RECORDER, CHIEF OF POLICE, ETC.

After each regular city election the city council shall employ or appoint a Recorder, a Chief of Police and such other officers, servants or agents as they may deem necessary, and shall have power to prescribe the duties of the same. The city council shall also fix the compensation of the Recorder, Chief of Police and other such officers, servants or agents so employed. The city council shall have power to dismiss the Recorder, Chief of Police and any other officer, servant or agent employed by them, a majority of the council concurring in the dismissal for any misdemeanor, neglect of duty, misconduct or inefficiency. [As replaced by Priv. Acts 1959, ch. 307; and Priv. Acts 2011, ch. 17, § 2]

SECTION 6

POWERS OF COUNCIL

Be it further enacted, That the City Council shall have power by ordinance within the said city:

1. To enact such ordinances, by-laws and regulations as may be necessary to preserve the health, quiet, peace, morals and good order of the city, including such quarantine regulations, not to exceed one mile outside the city limits, as occasion may require, in such ways as not to conflict with the laws of the State.

2. To declare what is a nuisance and to prevent and abate the same.

3. To assess property for taxes, and to levy and collect, by proper officers, taxes upon all real, mixed and personal property, polls and privileges taxable by the laws of the state; provided, that the tax rate for each year shall not exceed Two Dollars on each $100 valuation on taxable property for general purposes, plus not to exceed 25 cents on each $100 valuation on taxable property for the special purpose of improving, maintaining and beautifying Camden Cemetery. Provided, however, that the limitations of this subsection shall not be applicable to taxes levied for the purpose of paying principal of or interest on bonds issued or to be issued by the City of Camden under any general law of the State of Tennessee (1) to finance the cost of constructing, improving and extending the Waterworks and Sewer System of said city, but such Waterworks and Sewer bonds shall not exceed the principal amount of $370,000.00, and (2) to finance the cost of improving streets in and for said City, but such Street Improvement bonds shall not exceed the principal amount of $150,000.00, (3) to finance the cost of constructing, improving and extending the waterworks and sewer system of said city under the Accelerated Public Works Act, Project Nos. APW-Tenn-10GL and PFL-Tenn-427 and the Area Redevelopment Act,
No. AR-Tenn-62.003.1, the total authorized bonds on said projects shall not exceed the principal amount of $350,000.00.

3. (a) For the purpose of paying the cost, improvement, and maintenance of the public well in said city, the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of said city shall have, and they are hereby vested with, the power and authority to levy and collect a special tax on the property and privileges subject to taxation in said city, said special tax not to exceed in any one year twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of taxable property, and not exceed in any one year one-fourth of the tax on privileges levied for general corporation purposes.

4. To establish and maintain a public school in and for said corporation, and for this purpose to levy and collect taxes on all property, real, mixed and personal, polls and privileges taxable by the laws of the State; provided, that no levy for school purposes shall be less than seventy-five (75) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property, and provided further, that all taxes levied upon polls shall be applied for the maintenance of the public schools of said corporation.

5. To appropriate money and provide for the expenses of the city.

6. To open, alter, abolish, widen, extend, establish, grade, pave or otherwise improve, clean and keep in repair streets, highways, alleys and sidewalks in said corporate limits, or to have the same done; also to erect and keep in repair bridges, sewers and culverts. To require the owners of property fronting on a street or the public square to erect sidewalks, at the expense of the owner, in accordance with such ordinances as the Board of Mayor and Aldermen may provide. And to regulate traffic upon the streets, alleys and highways within the corporate limits of the City of Camden by requiring the registration of motor vehicles, to provide fees for such registration, and to provide for the collection thereof.

7. To provide for the erection of all buildings necessary for the use of the city, and to organize a work-house in or near the said city, and provide for committing and working in said work-house, on the public streets or city works any person who shall fail to pay or secure any fine or cost assessed against them for the violation of any ordinance, or who for such violation may be sentenced to said work-house, and provide for the management and control of the same.

8. To license and tax all privileges taxable by the laws of the State and to levy an annual privilege tax upon passenger automobiles and automobile trucks operating on and over the streets of the City of Camden, and to provide for the collection thereof.

9. To regulate and suppress gaming and gambling houses, disorderly houses, bawdy houses, and houses of ill-fame, or assignation houses, and all houses where one or more men and women meet for lewd purposes, or prostitution, or adulterous cohabitation; and they shall have the power to declare all such places nuisances and abate them as such.

10. To prevent and suppress the carrying or sale of all concealed weapons as defined by the laws of the State.

11. To regulate the storage, sale or use of firecrackers and all other fireworks and toy pistols, toy guns and explosives and combustibles.

12. To impose fines, forfeitures and penalties for the breach of ordinances adopted under this Act, and to provide for their recovery, and the arrest of any party or parties breaching said ordinances, and provide for sentence of imprisonment in the city work-house to secure such fines; Provided, that no fine shall exceed fifty ($50) dollars.

13. To regulate or prohibit the running at large in the streets of horses, cattle, hogs, goats and dogs and other animals.

14. To designate in said city certain districts as fire limits, and provide for the character of houses that may be built in said limits, and to regulate the same.

15. To pass all ordinances necessary for the health, peace, safety, convenience, protection of property and good order of the city, and for the suppression and prohibition of any and all acts and things made criminal by the laws of the State, and to provide a punishment for the breach of the same; Provided, that in cases amounting to felonies, the offender shall be bound over to the Circuit Court of Benton County.

16. To tax, regulate or restrain theatrical or other public amusements, shows and exhibitions within the limits of said city.

17. To restrain, prohibit or regulate horse swapping upon the public square or streets of said city, or the congregating of people for that purpose.

18. To prepare and have published a digest, or compilation of all ordinances of a public nature, in force within six months after this Act takes effect, and a like digest as often as may be deemed necessary.

19. To judge the qualification, election and returns of its own members, to prescribe rules for the determination of contested elections, to determine how vacancies shall be filled and to determine all questions in case of ties in any election and to prescribe rules for the government of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

20. To require all male citizens within said city between the ages of 18 and 45 years to work five days upon the streets of the city, or in lieu thereof commute said work by paying not less than one dollar per day for each day not worked, unless previously released by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen on account of physical inability to perform manual labor.
21. To elect a Board consisting of three (3) members to be known as the Cemetery Improvement Board, who shall be of lawful age and residents of the City of Camden, to have charge and supervision of the improvement, maintenance and beautification of the Camden Cemetery. Members of the original Board shall be R.L. Odle, Chairman, who is hereby appointed to serve until July 1, 1950; E.L. McCullough, who is hereby appointed to serve until July 1, 1949; and R.L. Davis, who is hereby appointed to serve until July 1, 1948. Successors to the above named members shall be elected by a majority vote of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Camden, for three (3) year terms, except in case of vacancy, in which case the election shall be for the unexpired term. Said Board shall have the right and is hereby authorized to expend for the improvement, maintenance, and beautification of said Camden Cemetery, such amounts as may be made available to it for said purposes by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Camden as a result of taxes levied and collected under Section 1 of this Act. [As amended by Priv. Acts 1909, ch. 553, § 2; Priv. Acts 1917, ch. 694, § 1(2); Priv. Acts 1919, ch. 207; Priv. Acts 1935, ch. 373, § 1; Priv. Acts 1945, ch. 608; Priv. Acts 1947, ch. 472; Priv. Acts 1947, ch. 849; Priv. Acts 1951, ch. 271; Priv. Acts 1953, ch. 103, § 2; Priv. Acts 1959, ch. 137; Priv. Acts 1959, ch. 306; and Priv. Acts 1963, ch. 228]

SECTION 7

ELECTIONS

Elections for the City of Camden shall be conducted as provided by general law in June, 2011 and June, 2013. All city elections after June, 2013 shall be held as provided by general law at the regular November election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in every even-numbered year. [As amended by Priv. Acts 1935, ch. 373, § 2; and replaced by Priv. Acts 1973, ch. 20; and Priv. Acts 2011, ch. 17, § 3]

SECTION 8

QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS

The election shall be held by the county election commission as provided by the general laws of this state. Any person qualified to vote in Benton County, Tennessee, for state and county officers and who has been a resident of the City of Camden at least six (6) months next preceding the election, or be the owner of real estate within said city limits for at least six (6) months, shall be entitled to vote in all elections.¹ [As amended by Priv. Acts 1935, ch. 373, § 3; and replaced by Priv. Acts 1973, ch. 20]

SECTION 9

TERMS OF OFFICERS

In order to increase the participation of the voters in municipal elections and to save considerable expense for the taxpayers of the City of Camden, after the city election in June, 2013, city elections shall be held at the regular general election in November of even-numbered years.

The two (2) candidates for Alderman receiving the most votes in the June, 2011, election shall be elected to a term expiring the first Monday in December, 2014. The candidate for Alderman receiving the third highest number of votes in the June, 2011, election shall be elected to a term expiring the first Monday in July, 2013. The term of the Mayor elected at the June, 2011, election shall expire the first Monday in December, 2014. The terms of the three (3) Aldermen elected at the June, 2013, election shall expire the first Monday in December, 2016.

The terms of the officers elected In June, 2011, and June, 2013, shall begin on the first Monday in July following their election, after the November, 2014, election the terms of all officers of the City of Camden shall begin on the first Monday in December following their election for a term of four (4) years and they shall hold office as hereinafter provided and until their successors are elected and qualified.

The Mayor and Board of Aldermen shall receive compensation for their services. The rate of compensation shall be set by the Board and may be paid on a per diem, monthly, or other basis. Provided, however, neither the compensation of the Mayor nor any other member of the Board of Aldermen shall be altered until the end of their term to which that member was elected.

¹Ordinance EWJ-05122014-01 dated June 9, 2014 provides that "all persons residing outside the corporate limits of the Town of Camden who own real property within the corporate limits of the Town of Camden and who are entitled to vote in the Town of Camden municipal elections pursuant to the Camden Charter and other general law requirements, shall cast their ballot in the Town of Camden municipal elections by absentee by mail ballots."
SECTION 10

ELECTION OFFICERS TO BE SWORN

Be it further enacted, That the judges and clerks to hold the elections prescribed by this Act, shall be sworn and qualified, according to the election laws of the State, and said election shall be conducted in all respects in compliance with the election laws of the State. The judges and clerks shall preserve the ballots cast in said elections and file the same, together with the poll lists, with the City Recorder, who shall preserve the same.

SECTION 11

CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION

Be it further enacted, That the person receiving the highest number of votes respectively for Mayor and Aldermen, shall be declared elected, and it shall be the duty of the officer holding said election to make out and deliver to the Recorder a certificate of the election within three days after their election, which certificate shall be produced at the first meeting of the Board, and a minute thereof shall be made upon the records of the city, and if the Marshal fail to hold said election at the time herein mentioned, it shall be his duty to hold it as soon thereafter as may be, after giving the regular notice, and for failure to hold said election, as prescribed in this Act, he shall forfeit and pay to said corporation the sum of $25.00, to be recovered by action of debt in the name of Camden, and if there be no Marshal, or he be a candidate for any office, or incompetent for any reason, the election shall be held by a person to be appointed by the Mayor and Aldermen, under the same regulations and penalties as herein before prescribed.

SECTION 12

QUORUM FOR CITY COUNCIL

Be it further enacted, That a majority of the City Council shall be a quorum to do business, and if the Mayor or any of the Aldermen, or any officer should die, resign or move away, the vacancy shall be supplied by the Council at its next meeting, or as soon thereafter as may be, and the person or persons so elected shall perform the same duty and be vested with the same powers and privileges as the person whose place they are appointed to fill, and upon like conditions. The Mayor and Aldermen and all other officers of said corporation shall, respectively, take and subscribe to an oath before some person competent to administer an oath, to perform and execute the duties of his office faithfully and impartially, and also to support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Tennessee.

DUTIES OF MAYOR

The Mayor shall hold office until a successor shall be elected and qualified. A vacancy in the office of Mayor shall be filled by the Board of Aldermen. The Mayor shall fill all vacancies arising in any office, except that of Aldermen, until the same be filled by the Council. It shall be the duty of the Mayor to preside at all meetings of the Council, to vote in the election of all officers of the city, and in all cases where it is a tie vote. All ordinances and resolutions shall be approved and signed by the Mayor, on or before the next meeting of the Council, and the Mayor shall have veto power, and if he shall refuse to approve an ordinance or resolution he shall return the same to the Council at its next meeting, with his reasons in writing for his refusal, and said ordinance or resolution shall not be valid unless the Council by a two-thirds vote pass the same notwithstanding the Mayor's veto; but if the Mayor does not veto the same as provided, it shall be valid without his signature. The Mayor shall also take care that all the ordinances of the city are fully enforced, respected and observed, within the city limits; shall call special sessions of the Council when he may deem it expedient, and to perform all such other duties as the City Council may, by ordinance or otherwise, impose upon him. That when the Recorder is absent, out of city or incapacitated to act, the Mayor shall have and is hereby vested with all the powers of the Recorder in criminal cases as vested in the Recorder by Section 14 of said Act. [As amended by Priv. Acts 1953, ch. 103, § 3; and Priv. Acts 2011, ch. 17, § 5]

SECTION 14

DUTIES OF RECORDER

Be it further enacted, That the Recorder of said city be and he is hereby vested with all the powers of a Justice of the Peace in criminal cases, and shall try all offenses against the peace and dignity of the City of Camden; Provided, however, that a change of venue may be had in any case when affidavit is made by the accused and at least one disinterested party, that justice in their opinion will not be meted out by the Recorder, to any Alderman of the City of Camden, who is hereby authorized to try and decide such case. In the event an appeal is taken from any fine imposed by the Recorder or Aldermen of said city for any violation of any of its ordinances to the Circuit Court at Camden, the person so appealing shall give bond and security for the payment of said fine and all cost, and to abide by and perform the judgment of the Court on appeal. The Recorder shall keep an accurate minute of all the proceedings of the City Council, issue privilege license and collect the taxes on the same. He shall collect all special taxes levied by the City Council, and shall keep a proper ledger account of the same; he shall make out the city tax book and turn the same over to the Marshal for collection, taking his receipt therefor under the State laws regulating the assessing of all State and county taxes; he shall act as Treasurer, receive from the City Marshal, receipt, take care of and keep proper accounts of all funds of whatever nature that may come into his hands. For such purposes he shall keep such book or books as the City Council may direct. He shall make out and present quarterly, or oftener, if required by the Council, a full and explicit account, and report all finances of the city, which report the Council may order published for the information of the city; he shall perform such other duties pertaining to his office as the City Council may provide. The Recorder of said city shall make and publish in at least one issue of a County paper in said city a semi-annual itemized sworn statement of the income and expenditures of said city for the six months preceding the making of said statement; that said statement shall be dated the 1st day of July and January respectively and before the publication of said itemized sworn statement it shall be the duty of, and said Board of Mayor and Aldermen is required to examine said statement and attest its correctness.¹

In the event the mayor and aldermen determine that the city recorder is not able to perform all of the duties herein set out, such city council may, by ordinance, provide for the office of city judge and appoint someone to perform the duties thereof. All the power heretofore granted the recorder will be vested in such city judge. [As amended by Priv. Acts 1919, ch. 207, § 3; and Priv. Acts 1973, ch. 154]

SECTION 15

DUTIES OF MARSHAL

Be it further enacted, That the Marshal of said city shall acquaint himself thoroughly with the laws, ordinances of the city, and it shall be his duty to rigidly enforce the same, for which purpose police authority is hereby given him, which he may exercise without warrant in hand. He shall collect all taxes levied by the Council except privileges and special taxes, and perform such other duties ¹Priv. Acts 1919, ch. 207, § 3, amended the Camden charter by adding the provisions of this last sentence, but it failed to specify what section to amend. The previous compiler arbitrarily placed it here.

as the City Council may by ordinances impose upon him. He shall have power to execute State warrants and other process that Constables generally have within the city limits. He shall be chief of any police organized within the corporation, he shall collect all fines, and forfeitures imposed by the Recorder, or other moneys due said city, except taxes on privileges and special taxes. He shall be liable upon his bond for failing to collect money, to return process, or pay over money collected by process, issued by the Recorder or Aldermen. He shall pay over to the Recorder within thirty (30) days all money collected by him belonging to said corporation. He shall render, monthly, statements of the finances collected by him.

OFFICERS TO GIVE BOND

Be it further enacted, That before entering upon the discharge of their duties, the Mayor, Recorder and Marshal shall enter into bond with good sureties, and in such amounts as may be fixed by the Council, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of their duties and upon diligent collection and faithful account for all moneys that shall or ought to come into their hands for fines, forfeitures or other moneys due said city and which ought, by law, to be collected and paid over by them. And the said Marshal shall be liable as herein mentioned for failing to collect money, to return process, or pay over money collected by process issued by the Recorder or Aldermen. Said bonds shall be filed with the Recorder and carefully preserved among the records of the city. Said bonds shall be made payable to Camden, or its Treasurer, for the use and benefit of said city.

SECTION 17

DELINQUENT TAXES

Be it further enacted, That when any tax or duty shall be levied or imposed by said corporation, upon any real estate lying within said City of Camden, and the owner or owners, occupier or occupiers thereof shall not pay the same, and the city Marshal shall make returns of that fact under oath, that the owner or owners have no personal property within said city upon which to levy or distrain for said tax or duty, it shall be the duty of the Recorder, by and with the advice and with the consent of the Council, to take such steps for the collection of such tax or duties as are or may be provided for by the laws of the State.

LIABILITY OF RECORDER & MARSHAL FOR TAXES

Be it further enacted, That if the Recorder or City Marshal of said city shall fail to collect, or after collecting, fail or refuse to pay over any money that either of them received for the use of said city, said Recorder or Marshal, as the case may be, shall be liable to be proceeded against by motion or suit at common law in the Circuit Court of Benton County, or in any other Court having jurisdiction of the person of the Recorder or Marshal, as the case may be, and it shall be the duty of such Court to render up judgment against such delinquent officer and his sureties upon his bond, for the money so received, or that ought to have been collected in the name of Camden, for the use of said corporation; Provided, that if the proceeding is by motion, such officer shall have five (5) days notice thereof.

SECTION 19

FRANCHISES

Be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Aldermen shall have the power and right to grant franchises to railways and street railways of any kind, gas companies, water companies, electric light companies, telephone companies and such other companies or corporations as in their judgment they may deem proper.

SECTION 20

CHARTER TO BE RECEIVED AS EVIDENCE

Be it further enacted, That this Act be declared a public law, and may be read in evidence in all the Courts of law and equity, and all ordinances, resolutions and proceedings of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, when printed and published by the authority of the Council, shall be received as evidence in all courts and places without further proof, when certified by the Recorder.

SECTION 21

EFFECTIVE DATE

Be it further enacted, That this Act take effect on the 30th day of May, 1903, the public welfare requiring it.

Passed April 11, 1903.
ED T. SEAY,
Speaker of the Senate.

L.D. TYSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved April 15, 1903.

JAMES B. FRAZIER,
Governor.
