Any person, firm, or corporation desiring to sell alcoholic beverages to patrons or customers, in sealed packages only, and not for consumption on the premises, shall make application to the city manager for a retailer's license, which application shall be in writing on forms prescribed and furnished by the city manager; subject to the issuance of a retail license by the commissioner of finance and taxation, State of Tennessee, a majority of the board of commissioners may issue such retailer's license. No license shall be granted for the operation of a retail store for the sale of alcoholic beverages when, in the opinion of the board of commissioners, expressed by a majority thereof, the carrying on of such business at the premises covered by the application for a license would be too close to a church, school, or public institution, or otherwise inimical to the public interest. A retailer's license issued under this chapter shall not be valid except at the premises recited in the application, and any change of location of said business shall be cause for immediate revocation of said license by the city manager, unless the location is approved in writing by the city manager. pay for any license issued under sections herein. In addition to all other penalties, a violation of this subsection shall authorize and require the revocation of the license, the fee for which was paid by another, and also the revocation of the license, if any, of the person so paying for the license of another.

(2) No retailer's license shall be issued to a person who is a holder of a public office, either appointive or elective, or who is a public employee, either national, state, city, or county. It shall be unlawful for any such person to have any interest in such retail business, directly or indirectly, either proprietary or by means of any loan, mortgage, or lien, or to participate in the profits of any such business.

(3) No retailer shall be a person who has been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude within ten (10) years prior to the time he or the concern with which he is connected shall receive a license; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to any person who has been so convicted but whose rights of citizenship have been restored or judgment of infamy has been removed by a court of competent jurisdiction. In the case of any such conviction occurring after a license has been issued and received, the said license shall immediately be revoked if such convicted felon be an individual licensee, and if not, the partnership, corporation, or association with which he is connected shall immediately discharge him.

(4) No license shall under any condition be issued to any person who, within ten (10) years preceding application for such license or permit, shall have been convicted of any offense under the laws of the State of Tennessee or of any other state or of the United States prohibiting or regulating the sale, possession, transportation, storing, manufacturing, or otherwise handling intoxicating liquors or who has, during said period, been engaged in business alone or with others in violation of any of said laws or rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, or as they existed or may exist thereafter.

(6) It shall be unlawful for any person to have ownership in, or participate, either directly or indirectly, in the profits of any retail business licensed, unless his interest in said business and the nature, extent, and character thereof shall appear on the application; or if the interest is acquired after the issuance of a license, unless it shall be fully disclosed to the city manager and approved by him. Where such interest is owned by such person on or before the application for any license, the burden shall be upon such person to see that this section is fully complied with, whether he himself signs or prepares the application, or whether the same is prepared by another; or if said interest is acquired after the issuance of the license, the burden of said disclosure of the acquisition of such interest shall be upon the seller and the purchaser.

(7) No person shall be employed in the sale of alcoholic beverages except a citizen of the United States.

(8) No retailer, or any employee thereof, engaged in the sale of alcoholic beverages shall be a person under the age of eighteen (18) years, and it shall be unlawful for any retailer to employ any person under eighteen (18) years of age for the physical storage, sale, or distribution of alcoholic beverages, or to permit any such person under said age on its place of business to engage in the storage, sale, or distribution of alcoholic beverages.

(10) The issuance of a license does not vest a property right in the licensee, but is a privilege subject to revocation or suspension under this chapter.

(11) Misrepresentation of a material fact, or concealment of a material fact required to be shown in application for license shall be a violation of this chapter. (2000 Code, § 8-109)

8-110. Display of license. Persons granted a license to carry on the business or undertaking contemplated herein shall, before being qualified to do business, display and post, and keep displayed and posted, in the most conspicuous place in their premises, such license. (2000 Code, § 8-110)

8-111. Transfer of permits restricted. The holder of a license may not sell, assign, or transfer such license to any other person, and said license shall be good and valid only for the calendar year in which the same was issued. Provided, however, that licensees who are serving in the military forces of the United States in the time of war may appoint an agent to operate under the license of the licensee during the absence of the licensee. In such instances, the license shall continue to be carried and renewed in the name of the owner. The agent of the licensee shall conform to all the requirements of a licensee. No person who is eligible to obtain a license shall be eligible to serve as the agent of a licensee under this section. (2000 Code, § 8-111)

8-112. Expiration and renewal of license. Licenses issued under this chapter shall expire at the end of each calendar year and, subject to the provisions of this chapter, may be renewed each calendar year by payment of the above-mentioned license fee. (2000 Code, § 8-112)

8-114. Federal license, effect of. The possession of any federal license to sell alcoholic beverages without the corresponding requisite state license, shall in all cases be prima facie evidence that the holder of such federal license is selling alcoholic beverages in violation of the terms of this chapter. (2000 Code, § 8-114)

8-115. Inspection fee. There is hereby imposed an inspection fee of five percent (5%) on all gross purchases of alcoholic beverages made by licensees under this chapter. The payment of said fee shall be accompanied by copies of all billings made to licensees by all wholesalers or distributors for said calendar month on a form prescribed by the city manager. Failure to pay said fee and make said report accurately within the time prescribed at the sole discretion of the city manager may be cause for suspension for as many as thirty (30) days, and at the sole discretion of the board of commissioners be cause for revocation of said license. (2000 Code, § 8-115)

8-116. Regulations for purchase and sale of intoxicating liquors. The following regulations shall apply in the purchase and sale of intoxicating liquors:

(11) No retail store shall be located except on the easterly side of North Main Street in the 400 block and on the easterly side of Two Mile Parkway in the 700 block. (2000 Code, § 8-116, as amended by Ord. #14-820, Aug. 2014)

8-117. Canvassers and solicitors prohibited. No holder of a license issued shall employ any canvasser or solicitor for the purpose of receiving an order from a consumer for any alcoholic beverages at the residence or places of business of such consumer, nor shall any such licensee receive or accept any such order which shall have been solicited or received at the residence or place of business of such consumer. (2000 Code, § 8-119)

8-120. Inspection of books, etc. The city manager is authorized to examine the books, papers, and records of any dealer for the purpose of determining whether the provisions of this chapter are being complied with. Any refusal to permit the examination of any of such books, papers, and records, or the investigation and examination of such premises, shall constitute sufficient reason for the revocation of a license or the refusal to issue a license. (2000 Code, § 8-120)

8-121. Suspension or revocation of license. In addition to any pecuniary penalty, any violation of the terms of this chapter shall make mandatory the suspension of said license by the city manager for thirty (30) days and in the discretion of the board of commissioners may be cause for revocation of said license. The notice shall be served on or mailed to the permittee at least ten (10) days before the date scheduled for the hearing. The beer board shall, at the public hearing, allow evidence to be presented on behalf of the holder of the permit and thereafter, in its discretion, either dismiss the charges or complaint, or suspend or revoke the permit. The action of the beer board shall, in all such hearings, be final, subject only to review by a court of competent jurisdiction as provided by state law. When a permit is revoked, no new permit at the same location for the sale of beer shall be issued hereunder to the permittee, or to any person or entity having any ownership interest in the permittee, until the expiration of one (1) year from the date the revocation becomes final.

(2) If the State Alcoholic Beverage Commission suspends or revokes a license to sell alcoholic beverages on the premises at any establishment for any violation or violations as provided in title 57, chapter 4, Tennessee Code Annotated, and the commission notifies the beer board by certified mail, return receipt requested, of the action taken by the commission, and includes with such notice the record of evidence and the determination made by the commission in suspending or revoking the license of establishment, then upon receipt of such notice, the beer board may temporarily suspend the beer permit of the establishment and shall:

(a) Schedule a hearing for the next regularly scheduled meeting of the beer board to be held at least fourteen (14) days following the date the beer board receives the certified letter to provide an opportunity for the permit holder to appear and show cause why the permit to sell beer on the premises should not be suspended or revoked for a violation or violations as provided in title 57, chapter 4, based on actions taken by the commission; and

(b) Notify the individual or business entity, which is listed as the permit holder at the same location where the alcoholic beverage license had been suspended or revoked, of the date and time of the hearing.

(3) If the beer board finds at a hearing that a sufficient violation or violations have occurred as provided in title 57, chapter 4, at such location, then the beer board may suspend or revoke the permit to the same extent and at least for the same period of time as the commission has suspended or revoked the license of the establishment.

(4) If the permit holder fails to appear or decides to surrender the permit to the beer board in lieu of appearing at the hearing the permit may be suspended or revoked by the beer board; provided, that if the permit is suspended or revoked, no permit to sell beer on the premises shall be issued by the beer board to any person for the location where the commission has suspended or revoked the license for the period of time included in the decision of the commission.

(5) Pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-608, the beer board shall not revoke or suspend the permit of a "responsible vendor" qualified under the requirements of Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-606, for a clerk's illegal sale of beer to a minor if the clerk is properly certified and has attended annual meetings since the clerk's original certification, unless the vendor's status as a certified responsible vendor has been revoked by the alcoholic beverage commission. If the responsible vendor's certification has been revoked, the vendor shall be punished by the beer board as if the vendor were not certified as a responsible vendor. "Clerk" means any person working in a capacity to sell beer directly to consumers for off-premises consumption. Under Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-608, the alcoholic beverage commission shall revoke a vendor's status as a responsible vendor upon notification by the beer board that the board has made a final determination that the vendor has sold beer to a minor for the second time in a consecutive twelve (12) month period. The revocation shall be for three (3) years.

(6) The decision of the beer board is final, and any party aggrieved thereby may appeal the decision of the beer board in accordance with Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-108. (as added by Ord. #15-847, Sept. 2016, and replaced by Ord. #21-1002, Sept. 2021 Ch5_02-10-22)

"Responsible vendor" means a person, corporation or other entity that has been issued a permit to sell beer and has received certification by the Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission under the "Tennessee Responsible Vendor Act of 2006," Tennessee Code Annotated, §§ 57-5-601, et seq.

(2) Penalty, revocation or suspension. The beer board may, at the time it imposes a revocation or suspension, offer a permit holder that is not a responsible vendor the alternative of paying a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) for each offense or making or permitting to be made any sales to minors, or a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for any other offense.

The beer board may impose on a responsible vendor a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each offense of making or permitting to be made any sales to minors or for any other offense.

If a civil penalty is offered as an alternative to revocation or suspension, the holder shall have seven (7) days within which to pay the civil penalty before the revocation or suspension shall be imposed. If the civil penalty is paid within that time, the revocation or suspension shall be deemed withdrawn. Payment of the civil penalty in lieu of revocation or suspension by a permit holder shall be an admission by the holder of the violation so charged and shall be paid to the exclusion of any other penalty that the city may impose. (as added by Ord. #15-847, Sept. 2016, and replaced by Ord. #21-1002, Sept. 2021 Ch5_02-10-22)

8-231. Loss of clerk's certification for sale to a minor. If the beer board determines that a clerk of an off-premises beer permit holder certified under Tennessee Code Annotated, § 57-5-606, sold beer to a minor, the beer board shall report the name of the clerk to the alcoholic beverage commission within fifteen (15) days of determination of the sale. The certification of the clerk shall be invalid and the clerk may not reapply for a new certificate for a period of one (1) year from the date of the beer board's determination. (as added by Ord. #15-847, Sept. 2016, as replaced by Ord. #21-1002, Sept. 2021 Ch5_02-10-22)

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or portion of this chapter is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion hereof. (as added by Ord. #15-847, Sept. 2016, amended by Ord. #18-916, April 2018, and replaced by Ord. #21-1002, Sept. 2021 Ch5_02-10-22)

8-233. Deleted. (as added by Ord. #15-847, Sept. 2016, and deleted by Ord. #21-1002, Sept. 2021 Ch5_02-10-22)

8-234. Deleted. (as added by Ord. #15-847, Sept. 2016, and deleted by Ord. #21-1002, Sept. 2021 Ch5_02-10-22)
