16-101. Purpose of streets and sidewalks.

16-102. Certain uses of streets and sidewalks are unlawful.

16-103. Littering on streets unlawful; penalty.

16-104. House numbers to be posted.

16-101. Purpose of streets and sidewalks. The City of Grand Junction, Tennessee built and maintains its streets for the purpose of affording pedestrians comfortable, safe and convenient means of going from place to place in said city for the purpose of carrying out the normal, customary and usual pursuits of everyday life. The city built and maintains the vehicular portions of its streets for the additional purpose of affording the public in general comfortable, safe and convenient means for transporting persons and property from place to place in said city, principally by vehicles, for the purpose of carrying out the normal customary and usual pursuits of everyday life, use of said sidewalks and streets by any person or persons for the purpose other than those set out interferes with the right of the public in general to use said sidewalks and streets for the purpose for which they were built and maintained, and is therefore contrary to public convenience, is conducive to disorder, is dangerous to public safety, and is calculated to cause breaches of the peace. (Ord. #15, Sept. 1963)

16-102. Certain uses of streets and sidewalks are unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons without written permission of the Board of Mayor and Alderman of the City of Grand Junction, Tennessee to conduct or participate in any parade or marching on the sidewalks or streets of the City of Grand Junction, Tennessee or to walk, ride, or stand in organized groups on said sidewalks or streets while carrying banners, placards, signs or the like, or to sit, kneel or recline on the sidewalks or streets of said city, or to engage in public speaking, group shouting, or group singing, or any other similar distracting activity on any of the sidewalks or streets of said city, or to assemble in groups on any sidewalk or street in such numbers or manner as to block or interfere with the customary and normal use thereof by the public unless the persons so assembled in such groups are engaged in watching a march or parade authorized by the provisions thereof; provided, however, that no written permission of the Board of Mayor and Alderman of said City of Grand Junction shall be required for a bona fide funeral procession en route to a cemetery or for any parade or march by any unit of the Tennessee National Guard or the United States Army, Navy, Air Corps, or Marine Corps, or by personnel of the police department or fire department of said City of Grand Junction, Tennessee. (Ord. #15, Sept. 1963)

16-103. Littering on streets unlawful; penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person to litter, place, throw, track, or allow to fall on any street, alley, or sidewalk any refuse, glass, tacks, mud, or other objects or materials which are unsightly or which obstruct or tend to limit or interfere with the use of such public ways and places for their intended purposes.

Any person violating any provisions of this section shall upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than two dollars ($2.00) and not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00). (Ord. #18, April 1967, modified)

16-104. House numbers to be posted. All residents of Grand Junction, Tennessee shall post house numbers as adopted by a Resolution on June 1, 1987.

Numbers must be in clear view of the street and shall be at least three (3) inches high. Penalty for violation of this section shall be ten dollars ($10.00) per month until complied with. (Ord. #56, Aug. 1987)
