5-201. Tax levied. There is hereby levied on all vocations, occupations, and businesses declared by the general laws of the state to be privileges taxable by municipalities, an annual City of Lebanon privilege tax in the maximum amount allowed by state laws.

The taxes provided for in the state's "Business Tax Act" (title 67, chapter 4, part 7, Tennessee Code Annotated) are hereby expressly enacted, ordained, and levied on the businesses, business activities, vocations, and occupations carried on within the city at the rates and in the manner prescribed by that act.

The provisions of the General Revenue Act of the State of Tennessee which are applicable to municipal corporations are incorporated herein by reference to the same extent and for the same purposes as if those sections of the General Revenue Act of the State of Tennessee were copied herein verbatim. (1968 code, § 6-301, modified)

5-202. License required. No vocation, occupation, or business subject to the privilege tax hereinbefore levied shall be exercised within the corporate limits of the City of Lebanon until the owner or a representative thereof has first procured a privilege license and executed a bond where a bond is required by the laws of the State of Tennessee. Any person, firm, or corporation guilty of exercising any such vocation, occupation, or business declared to be a privilege without having procured the license, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined under the general penalty clause for this code. (1968 code, § 6-302)

5-203. Enforcement. The commissioner of finance and revenue of the City of Lebanon shall enforce the collection of all privilege taxes. For the purpose of enforcing them, he shall have and be authorized to exercise all of the powers by law vested in, and shall follow all of the procedures or methods prescribed for, county court clerks in enforcing those collections and shall be
