

Recyclables Disposal
UT MTAS Survey January 2016

City	Title	First	Last	Phone	Email	Pop.	1. Does your city offer residential recycling?	2. Is it done by contractor or city crew?	3. Do you have a center near by for the disposal of collected materials?	4. If no, how do dispose of the collected materials?
Brentwood	Public Works Director	Jeff	Donegan	(615) 371-0080	doneganj@brentwood-tn.org	40401	No	Neither
Bristol	City Engineer, Public Works Director	Tim	Beavers	(423) 989-5566	tbeavers@bristoltn.org	26702	Not curbside but 4 collection centers	Waste Management manages the 4 collection locations	Waste Management handles disposal.
Chattanooga	Public Works Director	Jason	Silvers	(423) 757-6010	leach_steve@chattanooga.gov	167674	Yes	City crew	Yes. Our curbside material is taken to a material recovery facility owned and operated by Orange Grove with whom the City has a contract with all recycle services. The City also has five recycle convenience centers that is open to all residence.	N/A
Cookeville	Public Works Director	Greg	Brown	(931) 526-5247	gbrown@cookeville-tn.org	31154	Yes	City has sites for residents to take recyclables. City does not provide curbside recycling. A private contractor not associated with the city provides curbside recycling.	No. City takes material to the county, which sells it.	See question 3
East Ridge	Solid Waste Manager	Melvin	Petty	(423) 892-8666	mpetty@eastridgetn.gov	20979	Yes	City crew	Yes
Franklin	Solid Waste Manager	Becky	Caldwell	(615) 794-1516	beckyc@franklintn.gov	66370	Yes	City crew	Williamson County has a facility across the street from our main office and transfer station. Their operation third-party contractor does not accept our recyclables so we haul them to the Marshall County facility, in Lewisburg, Tennessee.
Gallatin	Public Works Director	Ronnie	Stiles	(615) 451-5909	ronnie.stiles@gallatin-tn.gov	30278	Yes recycling collection centers	City crews handle all commodities ewxcept paper which is hauled by a contractor	Yes
Johnson City	Public Works Director	Phil	Pindzola	(423) 434-6080	pindzola@johnsoncitytn.org	63152	yes	City crew	Yes	N/A There is one product we recycle in which the end user provides us a container and they come and pick the container up. They are located approximately 100 miles away.
Knoxville	Solid Waste Manager	John	Homa	(865) 215-4688	jhoma@cityofknoxville.org	178874	Yes	Contractor	Contractor disposes
Lebanon	Public Works Director	Jeff	Baines	(615) 443-2824	jbaines@lebanontn.org	26190	No, working on a program	Would contractor initially	Yes
Maryville	City Engineer, Public Works Director	Angie	Luckie	(865) 273-3504	amluckie@maryville-tn.gov	27536	Yes – recycling centers, not curbside collection	City crew	Yes – there is an MRF about 15 miles away from us in Knoxville where we dispose of the material.	N/A
Murfreesboro	Solid Waste Manager	Joey	Smith	(615) 893-3681	jsmith@murfreesborotn.gov	109031	No but city operates a collection center in city	Carustar picks up the new/mixed paper, Republic Industries picks up the OCC and Plastics, Steel and Aluminum cans, Rutherford County picks up the glass.
Metro Nashville	Solid Waste Manager	Sharon	Smith	(615) 862-8715	sharon.smith@nashville.gov	429421	Yes	City crew	Yes, Nashville contracts with Waste Management who operates a single-stream MRF in Davidson County	N/A

City	Title	First	Last	Phone	Email	Pop.	1. Does your city offer residential recycling?	2. Is it done by contractor or city crew?	3. Do you have a center near by for the disposal of collected materials?	4. If no, how do dispose of the collected materials?
Oak Ridge	Assist to Public Works Director	Susan	Fallon	(865) 425-1875	gcinder@oakridgetn.gov	29330	Yes	Contractor	Yes, we have a convenience center that handles waste and recycling within the City limits
Smyrna	Public Works Director	Tom	Rose	(615) 459-2553	tom.rose@townofsmyna.org	39974	No			