

Fire Hydrant Installation, Maintenance and Fees
 UT MTAS Research and Information Center
 April 2013

| City & Contact | Utility District (Water) | Are there fire hydrants attached to the UD's water lines? | Is there a fee from the UD for the hydrants? | How much are the fees and what are the details of the fee agreement? | Who maintains the fire hydrants? | Who pays for installation of new hydrants? |
|--|---|--|---|---|---|---|
| Harrogate – Finance Officer Debra England (423) 869-0211 | Arthur-Shawnee Utility District | Yes | No | N/A | The UD | The UD |
| Morrison – Fire Chief Mark Parker (931) 635-2363 | West Warren Utility District | Yes | No | N/A | The UD | Usually the UD, but there are occasions when the city pays for part of it |
| Red Bank – Fire Chief Mark A. Mathews (423) 877-7252 | Two UDs - Tennessee American and Hixson | Yes | Tennessee American – No Hixson – Yes (Private Utility companies cannot charge for fire hydrants according to state law) | Hixson – $50 per year per hydrant. There are 55 hydrants | The UD | Tennessee American usually pays With Hixson the city pays, unless it's a new development then the developer pays |
| White House - Fire Chief Joe C. | White House Utility District | Yes | No | N/A | The UD | Usually developers, whoever requests them |

| | | | | | | |
|--|---|-----|----|-----|--------|--|
| Palmer (615) 672-5338 | | | | | | pays for them |
| Eagleville – Fire Chief Rick Parks (615)274-2922 | Consolidated Utility District | Yes | No | N/A | The UD | Not sure, but upgrading all of the hydrants in the city limits is being considered right now |
| Millersville – Fire Chief Thomas King (615) 859-0880 | White House Utility District | Yes | No | N/A | The UD | Usually the developers of new neighborhoods |
| Pegram – Fire Chief Brent Stuart (615) 646-6800 | Three UDs - Second South, Harpeth Valley, and River Road | Yes | No | N/A | The UD | The UD or sometimes developers |
| Sunbright – Fire Chief Joey Stringfield (423) 628-5316 | Plateau Utility District | Yes | No | N/A | The UD | The UD |