INSTRUCTIONS: Litigation Fines and Fees Return

Litigation fines and fees are imposed upon persons making use of the Tennessee judicial system. The plaintiff is liable for litigation fines and fees upon filing of a case in civil proceedings. The defendant is liable for litigation fines and fees upon finding of guilt becoming final in criminal proceedings. Enter amounts collected on the appropriate Line in Column A, including any adjustments or partial payments. This is the "Gross Tax". In Column B, enter the "Net Tax", which is the amount of gross tax less the rate of commission retained if filed and paid timely.

Litigation fees and fines are required to file on the 15th day of the month following the reporting period, and required to file even though no fees/fines are due.

The clerks of the court are responsible for filing and paying the collected taxes and fines.

Clerks of the court should submit online their fully completed return, along with the amount from Line 32, by visiting the Department's website at <https://tntap.tn.gov/eservices>. Alternatively, they may mail the return and payment to the following address. Checks should be made out to the Tennessee Department of Revenue.
